They'll Reign at WHS Homecoming Friday

Not even the activities of an invincible flu germ will keep the Washington Hig'. School football team from "coming home" in style Friday night amidst a colorful spectacle of Homecoming Day activities.

Queen Jean Conaway, whose coronation has been delayed nearly a month by the flu bug, is ready to ascend her throne.

And her court, her admirers, her football team—and even the opposition squad, from Wilmington—are ready to greet her.

They'll be serenaded by the band and the chorus, there'll be flowers from the gridiron captain, and a full day in the spotlight for the Washington C. H. High School senior as she rules over the event. Planning has been going on furiously all week to make sure the event is a success.

• • •

ORIGINALLY scheduled for Oct. 18, the homecoming celebration was postponed when the game against Wilmington was postponed. Together, they will bring a flourishing climax to the football season.

First portion of the celebration will come Friday afternoon when the 870 students and faculty members gather in the school auditorium for the homecoming program. Cheerleaders and the "pep band" will open the assembly and prepare the presentation of the queen and her court to the student body.

High School Principal Kaye Bloser will present the football to be used in the homecoming game to the queen, who will give it to Coach Fred Domenico. An original poem will be read by Cathy Croker and Choral Director Grover Baber will lead an ensemble serenade.

• • •

Special homecoming activities for the game in the evening include the presentation of the queen and her court on the field, and a serenade by the high school band.

U.S., Reds Both Plan Manned Space Flights

Adlai May Go To Paris Parley With President

From a haze of confusion, the role of the Democrat whom Eisenhower twice defeated for the presidency emerged as that of adviser (and possibly a participant) in proposals Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles will present to a North Atlantic Treaty meeting of heads of state in Paris Dec. 16.

An error by James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, brought on the uncertainty which both Hagerty and Stevenson later sought to clarify.

Stevenson said he had informed Dulles a week ago that "while I could not undertake to formulate the President's policies, I would gladly review and discuss our government's proposals before they were put into final shape."

Hagerty said Stevenson "will be kept informed of the developing program and will, we hope, discuss the items in the program with the administration before they are finalized."

IN A BID FOR bipartisan support, Stevenson reportedly had been offered at first a key position in both formulating and presenting United States proposals to strengthen NATO against Russia's growing missile strength.

Even in the more limited advisory role, officials let it be known that Stevenson could go with Eisenhower and Dulles to Paris if he chose to.

In New York Tuesday night, he said he would be willing to attend the Paris meeting. But whether he would go, he said, would depend on the shape of the U. S. proposals. He indicated one condition might be an increase in foreign aid which would require a relaxation of the $275 billion limit on the federal debt.

By implication he left himself free to criticize any of the administration's proposals with which he disagrees.

Stevenson issued his statement after Hagerty had announced at first that Stevenson would limit his cooperation to commenting on the program after it had been developed.

Hagerty, conceding later he had made an error, said he had misunderstood the meaning of the word "comment." He agreed Stevenson's role would be to consult and comment while the policies were in preparation.

New U. S. Science Study Plan Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower outlines to the nation tonight his program for training more American youths as scientists in the space era struggle against Russia.

Some key scientific advisers to the President reportedly have suggested to him that the federal government grant scholarship to promising students as an incentive. But the White House declined advance discussion of what Eisenhower will recommend.

For tonight's coast-to-coast television address, the second in a "chins up" series, the President travels by plane to Oklahoma City.

The speech will be carried live at 10:30 p. m. EST, by NBC-TV and all four major radio networks. ABC and CBS television will carry the address on film at 11:15.

Eisenhower will speak at Municipal Auditorium in connection with Oklahoma's "Arrows to Atoms" 50th anniversary of statehood. He plans to start back to Washington by plane immediately after the speech.

• • •

THE PRESIDENT'S drive to overtake and surpass Russia in development of missiles and other weapons of the future started formally last Thursday night. In a nationwide TV address then he named James R. Killian, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as a special assistant to coordinate the drive.

He also set forth several other steps in a program of immediate action designed to put the United States ahead of the Soviet Union.

At the same time he mentioned briefly certain long-range requirements which he said he would discuss in more detail tonight.

In his talk last week he said: "According to my scientific friends, one of our greatest, and the most glaring, deficiencies is the failure of us in this country to give high enough priority to scientific education and to the place of science in our national life."

But Each Says Projects Are Long Way Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Both the United States and Russia are giving serious thought and planning to a manned space ship, but both admit that such a project is a long way off.

Brig. Gen. H. F. Gregory, commander of the U. S. Air Force Office of Scientific Research, said Tuesday: "Although it may be somewhat early to be building manned space ships, it is not too early to be thinking about exploratory research in this area. In fact we have been doing it for some time."

In Moscow, Izvestia said today the Soviet Union will shoot many into space before risking human life in such experiments.

The Soviet government newspaper said the first human space travelers would not be adventurers but "the best people to be found in Soviet society."

Scientific methods of protecting future pilots and passengers from harmful effects must be created beforehand by means of experiments with animals in space, the paper added.

• • •

GENERAL GREGORY described the Air Force project Farside, a recent series of rocket tests, as "one of many high-altitude scientific research efforts that will be required for the successful conquest of space."

The Air Force has said previously that six rockets were fired in the Farside tests in the Pacific and there have been unofficial reports that the sixth shot went more than 4,000 miles into the sky.

Gregory said there was no foundation for reports that Farside personnel had been pressured to speed up the project as a result of Russia's first satellite launching Oct. 4.

It was that event which touched off a general clamor for accelerating the U. S. missile and satellite programs. The second Soviet satellite, one carrying a dog was hung in space Nov. 3.

Pravda, the Russian Communist party newspaper, in a long review of the Soviet earth satellite program, today gave what appeared to be the first authentic report with pictures of the structure of the Sputniks.

But neither Pravda nor Izvestia made any direct mention of Laika, the dog passenger on Sputnik II.

Prof. Vladimir Chernigovsky, a member of the Soviet Academy of Medical Science, said in the Moscow News today there was no intention of returning the dog to earth. The professor participated in the dog's preflight training.

• • •

PRAVDA CONFIRMED that the second satellite was rocket-shaped with a semi-pointed nose. It was actually the last stage rocket of the carrier. Inside was a sphere patterned after Sputnik I. The sphere contained the dog, radio transmitters and other equipment.

The paper said the air in the tiny dog cabin was subjected to chemical regeneration and that a system of forced ventilation overcame weightlessness.

Pravda predicted that Sputnik I would continue in its orbit around the earth for at least three months before burning up in the earth's atmosphere. This would be in late December or early January.

Sputnik II will continue its revolutions much longer, Pravda said.

Death Claims Marie Hughes

Teacher Stricken At School Function

MISS MARIE HUGHES

Miss Marie Hughes, 62, who had been a teacher in the Washington C. H. schools for 44 years, died at 7 a. m. Wednesday in Memorial Hospital, where she was taken Tuesday night after she suffered a stroke at the Sunnyside School just as the last of the "open house" visitors were leaving.

Miss Hughes, a lifelong resident of Fayette County, had helped literally thousands of young people along the path of learning. Of her 44 years as a teacher, the last 28 were spent on the staff of the Sunnyside School where she taught the fifth grade.

She was a graduate of Wilmington College.

• • •

MISS HUGHES was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, the City Teachers Assn. and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

At the City Teachers Assn. banquet last year, a tribute was paid to Miss Hughes when a skit based on her life was presented.

She is survived also by three brothers, Harry and Floyd of Washington C. H. and Roy of Good Hope; three sisters, Mrs. Lewis Evans of Bloomingburg, Mrs. Morgan Yahn of New Holland and Mrs. William Hudson of Columbus; and 13 nieces and nephews.

Services will be held in the First Presbyterian Church at 2 p. m. Friday by the Rev. W. Neil Hand, the pastor. Burial will be in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Hook & Son Funeral Home after 7 p. m. today.

Judge Understands Husband's Fright

HALESOWEN, England (AP)— Albert A. Pastore told a judge Tuesday he fled from the scene of an accident involving his car because he had just spotted his wife on the street and he had another woman with him.

"Nobody knows my wife quite like I do," Pastore declared in court. "I realized if my wife reached us, she would cause a scene."

The court dismissed a charge of failing to stop after an accident and let Pastore off with a fine of $5.60 for careless driving.

Bricker Condemns Current 'Cafeteria-Style' Education

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) today assailed "professional pedagogues" who, he said, are "responsible for stunting the minds of millions of young Americans."

Because of these "pedagogues," Bricker said, American education is lagging behind the Soviet Union's in such subjects as mathematics, physics, foreign languages, and chemistry.

In a convocation address for Central State College, Bricker said he did not refer to the vast majority of college professors or to many elementary and high school teachers.

What he objects to, he said, are those teachers so fond of the label "progressive" education that they consider as unimportant such subjects as mathematics and spelling.

As examples, Bricker referred to an article by a junior high school principal in Champaign, Ill., printed in the Champaign News-Gazette Feb. 14, 1951, and an article in the September 1951 American Magazine by an Ohio University professor.

Without identifying the authors by name, Bricker said the Champaign man asserted that some day it will be considered illogical to assume every boy must be able to read.

The Ohio University man, he said, opposed arithmetic courses for non-specialized students on the ground that it is not practical for the average child.

"No wonder," Bricker said, "that America is confronted by a dangerous and growing shortage of competent scientists and engineers."

Bricker said that it is true that inadequate teacher salaries and inadequate facilities have contributed to what he called a decline in the quality of elementary and secondary education.

"But the main reason for the adulteration of educational standards is a fallacious theory of education," he said.

"Many schools have frankly substituted what they call 'adjustment to life' for the study, discipline and self-reliance traditionally associated with responsible individualism.

"The result is cafeteria-style education from which the student may select courses in fly casting, basket weaving, and, I quote from the curriculum of a Maryland school—'Life Can Be Beautiful,' 'Am I Getting My Money's Worth?' and 'What to Do in Certain Embarrassing Situations.' "

Farm Prices Seen Stabilizing

Ag Department Issues Predictions for 1958

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicts farm prices and income will stabilize at or near this year's levels in 1958.

The agency also foresaw some further slight increases in prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in family living and in farm production.

In an outlook report for the new year, the department said that heavy supplies of farm commodities will tend to keep prices and returns from increasing.

The department said the new year will be marked by a continuation of a long-time trend toward fewer farms and fewer farm people. Because of this, it said, the average income of farm people could increase.

On the farm marketing side, the department predicted a continued strong domestic and export demand. It added, however, that exports may not be as large as this year's record quantity.

• • •

THE REPORT said that so far this year, prices received by farmers have averaged 3 per cent higher than in the same period of 1956. Much of the gain has been due to substantially higher prices for hogs and beef cattle. Feed grain prices are sharply lower as a result of increased supplies.

For 1958, the most significant changes in farm product prices presently in view of the department are somewhat lower prices for 1958 crop wheat, because of lower price supports, and for hogs, for which an increase in production is underway.

The department said farm output next year could well equal or exceed this year's.

3 U. S. Jets Fly Non-Stop To Philippines

The Air Force said the flight from George Air Force Base, Calif., made in just over 17 hours, was part of an operation to show it can deliver a tactical striking force to help nip brush-fire wars anywhere in the world.

A spokesman said the 8,000-mile nonstop trip was a record for B-66s, which can carry atomic weapons. The flight refueled in the air off Hawaii.

The B66s are the vanguard of 47 jet fighter and bombers being moved from various U. S. bases to Pacific points in an operation called "Mobile Zebra."

Thirty-one planes are coming to the Philippines and 16 others will stop at Guam.

The average speed was about 530 miles an hour, Clizbe said. The three-man light bomber is rated in the 600-700 mile an hour class.

Debate Continuing On 'Who Is Boss?'

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Salt Lake Tribune recently sent a questionnaire to all its school correspondents. One of the questions: "Who is the boss in your home?"

The Tribune says an overwhelming majority reported mother is the boss. Only a sprinkling voted for father.

4 Backup Lights On Car Said Illegal

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania Highway Safety Director O. D. Shipley says those new cars with four backup lights on the rear are illegal. The state motor vehicle code states that cars may not have more than two such lights, one on each side.

Shipley said the bureau will consider the law satisfied if the wiring and light bulbs are removed from the extra lights, leaving the covers for ornamental purposes.

Jet Stratotanker Seeks New Mark

The tough, cigar-smoking U.S. Air Force vice chief of staff and 22 other persons left Buenos Aires about 4:28 a.m. EST. A Buenos Aires-Washington speed record appeared to be in the making.

Maintenance crew worked nearly through the night preparing the four-jet tanker for the takeoff.

LeMay charted a nearly direct course for the approximately 5,000 miles to Washington on his way home from a quick visit to Argentina's National Aviation Week and a call on Provisional President Pedro Aramburu.

Air Force officers estimated that the trip back would take about 11 hours. LeMay flew south Tuesday from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., in 13 hours, 2 minutes, 51 seconds.

• • •

ON THE TRIP down, the Air Force vice chief of staff skirted Brazil, flying over the Atlantic to add about 600 miles to the trip. It set a distance record of 6,325 miles for an officially recorded nonstop, nonrefueled jet flight.

The trip south at an average speed of 485 miles an hour did not set an official speed record, however, because the International Aeronautical Federation recognizes only speed tests from one national capital to another.

LeMay's destination today was Andrews Air Force Base near Washington.

Charles Logsdon, executive secretary of the National Aeronautical Assn., who judged the southbound flight for distance, was returning with LeMay to certify any speed record.

The quick trip home would give an added punch to a good will statement from President Eisenhower which LeMay delivered to Aramburu. Eisenhower said in the message that the long-range flight demonstrated that in the very near future travel between their two countries would require less than half a day.

The KC135 is a military version of the Boeing 707 jetliner, which is expected to go into commercial airline service by 1959. The Stratotanker is designed to refuel the global B52 bomber and other jets, and also can be converted to carry up to 100 troops, or cargo.

Rackets Panel To Eye Akron Union Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee will investigate a long standing union dispute at the Burt Manufacturing Co. in Akron, Ohio, probably after Jan. 1.

A committee spokesman said today a public hearing will be held here on allegations that the AFL Sheet Metal Workers have been persuading contractors to boycott Burt products.

The firm, which makes ventilators, signed a contract in 1945 with the CIO United Steel Workers. Ever since then, the committee has been told, the rival sheet metal workers have tried to hurt Burt's business.

Sen. Lausche (D-Ohio) and others have contended that the Sheet Metal Workers successfully put pressure on firms not to use Burt equipment.

One of Lausche's colleagues, Sen. Curtis (R-Neb), has introduced legislation to ban union secondary boycotts. Curtis has cited the Burt matter as one that cannot be prosecuted under the Taft-Hartley law.

"The case is ready for hearing any time," a committee aide said. "It's a fairly clear case, admitted by both sides."

Inlaw Is Left $1000 'To Spend Foolishly'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A woman with "a fine sense of humor" has willed $1,000 to her son-in-law "to spend foolishly."

Ben B. Herr, the son-in-law, also was named executor of the estate. He said he didn't know why Mrs. Sara Cecil Taylor should make such a bequest.

Communist Cables Fouled Up; Berlin Yule Tree Wrecked

Finally, out of the forests of Thuringia the shimmering pine was hauled into the city's Red Square. Enthusiastic citizens gathered to watch complicated cable machinery raise the tree.

The cables went berserk. One pulled one way, the other another way, and the tree snapped in two.

As the pieces were being hauled away, Neues Deutschland, the Communist party newspaper, rushed into print with the comforting news that the Red regime has sent an urgent order to Thringia: Get another tree quick.

Notorious Criminal Society Linked to New York Racket

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal agent testified today the Mafia, notorious criminal secret society, has moved in on New York's garbage collection rackets.

Joseph Amato, head of a special investigating squad in the Federal Narcotics Bureau, also told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee that Vincent J. Squillante, whom the committee has named as a kingpin in the garbage racket, is "an important figure" in the Mafia.

"He is considered by me and my office as a major source of supply for narcotics as well as being a prominent racketeer," Amato said.

Sen. Ives (R-NY) asked whether Amato had heard testimony that linked the name of Squillante with the slain gangster Albert Anastasia and the garbage racket, and whether he considered the garbage racket has become "something operated by the Mafia?"

"Yes, sir," Amato replied.

• • •

BEFORE AMATO took the witness chair, there had been testimony from the garbage collector brothers, John and Anthony Montesano, that gangsters moved in on the Garbage Collectors Assn. in Nassau County, N. Y., in connection with negotiation of a contract with a Teamsters Union local.

The Montesanos said the gangster move began when they called in Squillante for assistance in contract negotiations.

Santa To Arrive in Washington C.H. Nov. 29

Santa Claus will arrive in Washington C. H. on Friday, Nov. 29, it was announced Wednesday morning at a meeting of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for Santa's visit are strictly in the formative stages, and details of the welcoming ceremonies will be announced later.

The Merchants Committee with Jack Daves, chairman, presiding, discussed preliminary plans for the overall Christmas program, and arrangements were made to start decorating the downtown area on Monday, Nov. 18.

THE COMMITTEE will submit a model ordinance regulating peddlers for the consideration of City Council. The merchants' group originated the proposal after studying similar ordinances approved by other cities.

Citywide merchandising promotions for January and February also were discussed by the committee.

Mac Dews Sr., Ralph Nisley and George Steen, representing the Fayette County Fair Board, met with the group in an effort to interest more businessmen in using space in the Merchants Building at Fair time.

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) today assailed "professional pedagogues" who, he said, are "responsible for stunting the minds of millions of young Americans."

Because of these "pedagogues," Bricker said, American education is lagging behind the Soviet Union's in such subjects as mathematics, physics, foreign languages, and chemistry.

In a convocation address for Central State College, Bricker said he did not refer to the vast majority of college professors or to many elementary and high school teachers.

What he objects to, he said, are those teachers so fond of the label "progressive" education that they consider as unimportant such subjects as mathematics and spelling.

As examples, Bricker referred to an article by a junior high school principal in Champaign, Ill., printed in the Champaign News-Gazette Feb. 14, 1951, and an article in the September 1951 American Magazine by an Ohio University professor.

Without identifying the authors by name, Bricker said the Champaign man asserted that some day it will be considered illogical to assume every boy must be able to read.

The Ohio University man, he said, opposed arithmetic courses for non-specialized students on the ground that it is not practical for the average child.

"No wonder," Bricker said, "that America is confronted by a dangerous and growing shortage of competent scientists and engineers."

Bricker said that it is true that inadequate teacher salaries and inadequate facilities have contributed to what he called a decline in the quality of elementary and secondary education.

"But the main reason for the adulteration of educational standards is a fallacious theory of education," he said.

"Many schools have frankly substituted what they call 'adjustment to life' for the study, discipline and self-reliance traditionally associated with responsible individualism.

"The result is cafeteria-style education from which the student may select courses in fly casting, basket weaving, and, I quote from the curriculum of a Maryland school—'Life Can Be Beautiful,' 'Am I Getting My Money's Worth?' and 'What to Do in Certain Embarrassing Situations.' "

Rackets Panel To Eye Akron Union Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee will investigate a long standing union dispute at the Burt Manufacturing Co. in Akron, Ohio, probably after Jan. 1.

A committee spokesman said today a public hearing will be held here on allegations that the AFL Sheet Metal Workers have been persuading contractors to boycott Burt products.

The firm, which makes ventilators, signed a contract in 1945 with the CIO United Steel Workers. Ever since then, the committee has been told, the rival sheet metal workers have tried to hurt Burt's business.

Sen. Lausche (D-Ohio) and others have contended that the Sheet Metal Workers successfully put pressure on firms not to use Burt equipment.

One of Lausche's colleagues, Sen. Curtis (R-Neb), has introduced legislation to ban union secondary boycotts. Curtis has cited the Burt matter as one that cannot be prosecuted under the Taft-Hartley law.

"The case is ready for hearing any time," a committee aide said. "It's a fairly clear case, admitted by both sides."

Inlaw Is Left $1000 'To Spend Foolishly'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A woman with "a fine sense of humor" has willed $1,000 to her son-in-law "to spend foolishly."

Ben B. Herr, the son-in-law, also was named executor of the estate. He said he didn't know why Mrs. Sara Cecil Taylor should make such a bequest.

The rest of the $100,000 estate was left mostly to Mrs. Taylor's daughter, Herr's wife.

Communist Cables Fouled Up; Berlin Yule Tree Wrecked

Finally, out of the forests of Thuringia the shimmering pine was hauled into the city's Red Square. Enthusiastic citizens gathered to watch complicated cable machinery raise the tree.

The cables went berserk. One pulled one way, the other another way, and the tree snapped in two.

As the pieces were being hauled away, Neues Deutschland, the Communist party newspaper, rushed into print with the comforting news that the Red regime has sent an urgent order to Thringia: Get another tree quick.

3 U. S. Jets Fly Non-Stop To Philippines

The Air Force said the flight from George Air Force Base, Calif., made in just over 17 hours, was part of an operation to show it can deliver a tactical striking force to help nip brush-fire wars anywhere in the world.

A spokesman said the 8,000-mile nonstop trip was a record for B-66s, which can carry atomic weapons. The flight refueled in the air off Hawaii.

The B66s are the vanguard of 47 jet fighter and bombers being moved from various U. S. bases to Pacific points in an operation called "Mobile Zebra."

Thirty-one planes are coming to the Philippines and 16 others will stop at Guam.

Debate Continuing On 'Who Is Boss?'

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Salt Lake Tribune recently sent a questionnaire to all its school correspondents. One of the questions: "Who is the boss in your home?"

The Tribune says an overwhelming majority reported mother is the boss. Only a sprinkling voted for father.

Farm Prices Seen Stabilizing

Ag Department Issues Predictions for 1958

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicts farm prices and income will stabilize at or near this year's levels in 1958.

The agency also foresaw some further slight increases in prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in family living and in farm production.

In an outlook report for the new year, the department said that heavy supplies of farm commodities will tend to keep prices and returns from increasing.

The department said the new year will be marked by a continuation of a long-time trend toward fewer farms and fewer farm people. Because of this, it said, the average income of farm people could increase.

On the farm marketing side, the department predicted a continued strong domestic and export demand. It added, however, that exports may not be as large as this year's record quantity.

• • •

THE REPORT said that so far this year, prices received by farmers have averaged 3 per cent higher than in the same period of 1956. Much of the gain has been due to substantially higher prices for hogs and beef cattle. Feed grain prices are sharply lower as a result of increased supplies.

For 1958, the most significant changes in farm product prices presently in view of the department are somewhat lower prices for 1958 crop wheat, because of lower price supports, and for hogs, for which an increase in production is underway.

The department said farm output next year could well equal or exceed this year's.

4 Backup Lights On Car Said Illegal

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania Highway Safety Director O. D. Shipley says those new cars with four backup lights on the rear are illegal. The state motor vehicle code states that cars may not have more than two such lights, one on each side.

Shipley said the bureau will consider the law satisfied if the wiring and light bulbs are removed from the extra lights, leaving the covers for ornamental purposes.

Judge Understands Husband's Fright

HALESOWEN, England (AP)—Albert A. Pastore told a judge Tuesday he fled from the scene of an accident involving his car because he had just spotted his wife on the street and he had another woman with him.

"Nobody knows my wife quite like I do," Pastore declared in court. "I realized if my wife reached us, she would cause a scene."

The court dismissed a charge of failing to stop after an accident and let Pastore off with a fine of $5.60 for careless driving.

Jet Stratotanker Seeks New Mark

The tough, cigar-smoking U.S. Air Force vice chief of staff and 22 other persons left Buenos Aires about 4:28 a.m. EST. A Buenos Aires-Washington speed record appeared to be in the making.

Maintenance crew worked nearly through the night preparing the four-jet tanker for the takeoff.

LeMay charted a nearly direct course for the approximately 5,000 miles to Washington on his way home from a quick visit to Argentina's National Aviation Week and a call on Provisional President Pedro Aramburu.

Air Force officers estimated that the trip back would take about 11 hours. LeMay flew south Tuesday from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., in 13 hours, 2 minutes, 51 seconds.

• • •

ON THE TRIP down, the Air Force vice chief of staff skirted Brazil, flying over the Atlantic to add about 600 miles to the trip. It set a distance record of 6,325 miles for an officially recorded nonstop, nonrefueled jet flight.

The trip south at an average speed of 485 miles an hour did not set an official speed record, however, because the International Aeronautical Federation recognizes only speed tests from one national capital to another.

Charles Logsdon, executive secretary of the National Aeronautical Assn., who judged the southbound flight for distance, was returning with LeMay to certify any speed record.

The quick trip home would give an added punch to a good will statement from President Eisenhower which LeMay delivered to Aramburu. Eisenhower said in the message that the long-range flight demonstrated that in the very near future travel between their two countries would require less than half a day.

The KC135 is a military version of the Boeing 707 jetliner, which is expected to go into commercial airline service by 1959. The Stratotanker is designed to refuel the global B52 bomber and other jets, and also can be converted to carry up to 100 troops, or cargo.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal agent testified today the Mafia, notorious criminal secret society, has moved in on New York's garbage collection rackets.

Joseph Amato, head of a special investigating squad in the Federal Narcotics Bureau, also told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee that Vincent J. Squillante, whom the committee has named as a kingpin in the garbage racket, is "an important figure" in the Mafia.

"He is considered by me and my office as a major source of supply for narcotics as well as being a prominent racketeer," Amato said.

Sen. Ives (R-NY) asked whether Amato had heard testimony that linked the name of Squillante with the slain gangster Albert Anastasia and the garbage racket, and whether he considered the garbage racket has become "something operated by the Mafia?"

"Yes, sir," Amato replied.

• • •

BEFORE AMATO took the witness chair, there had been testimony from the garbage collector brothers, John and Anthony Montesano, that gangsters moved in on the Garbage Collectors Assn. in Nassau County, N. Y., in connection with negotiation of a contract with a Teamsters Union local.

The Montesanos said the gangster move began when they called in Squillante for assistance in contract negotiations.

Santa To Arrive in Washington C.H. Nov. 29

Santa Claus will arrive in Washington C. H. on Friday, Nov. 29, it was announced Wednesday morning at a meeting of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for Santa's visit are strictly in the formative stages, and details of the welcoming ceremonies will be announced later.

The Merchants Committee with Jack Daves, chairman, presiding, discussed preliminary plans for the overall Christmas program, and arrangements were made to start decorating the downtown area on Monday, Nov. 18.

THE COMMITTEE will submit a model ordinance regulating peddlers for the consideration of City Council. The merchants' group originated the proposal after studying similar ordinances approved by other cities.

Citywide merchandising promotions for January and February also were discussed by the committee.

Mac Dews Sr., Ralph Nisley and George Steen, representing the Fayette County Fair Board, met with the group in an effort to interest more businessmen in using space in the Merchants Building at Fair time.

Garcia Ahead In Filipino Poll

But His Running Mate Trails in Balloting

Garcia, 61-year-old Nacionalista party candidate and political heir of the late Ramon Magsaysay, moved well ahead of Liberal party candidate Jose Yulo, 63-year-old sugar king. Garcia was winning almost 40 per cent of the votes in the five-man race.

In the vice presidential race, Diosdado Macapagal, a Liberal, piled up an overwhelming lead over House Speaker Jose B. Laurel Jr., the Nacionalista nominee and member of one of the Philippines' leading political families.

With Garcia and Macapagal victorious, the Philippines for the first time would have a president and vice president of opposing parties. Both favored continued strong cooperation with the U. S.

The Philippine News Service said if the trend continued, Garcia would win the presidency with a 495,000-vote lead over Yulo.

Sportsmen To Meet At Lodge Thursday

A slate of candidates for next year's officers of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. will be submitted at Thursday night's meeting at the lodge near Buena Vista. The election will be held at the December meeting. Thursday night's meeting is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Highlighting the meeting will be a discussion of the hunting laws and Game Protector Dave Krupla will be there to answer questions.

Part of the discussion, it was said, "undoubtedly will be on the question of getting permission from the land owner."

The pheasant and rabbit hunting seasons open Friday.

The secretary said the new membership cards will be ready by Thursday and that they will be put out among the present members at this meeting.

'Peanut Brittle' Joke Not Funny, Jury Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Mrs. Bertha Ekman opened the can labeled "peanut brittle" she found it wasn't, and the judgment she got from a jury wasn't peanuts.

The jury awarded her $25,000 Tuesday. Mrs. Ekman testified that when she opened the phony can of peanut brittle, paper snakes sprang out at her.

She sued cafe owner James Munson for $117,250, claiming that the shock caused her to fall backward and that she required hospitalization four times as a result.

Car Driven Away For 'Tryout' Ride Not Brought Back

A man and a woman, both about 35 years of age, went out for a test ride in a 1956 Ford car owned by Carroll Halliday, Inc., 907 Columbus Ave., Tuesday night. . .and never came back, police reported today.

Still missing late Wednesday morning, the auto was listed as a stolen car with the State Highway Patrol.

The couple, who represented themselves as Temple St. residents, told salesman they owned a 1953 Ford that was not in running condition and that they were "interested in making a deal."

They left the garage about 4:30 p. m. When they had not returned at 7:30 p. m., the alleged theft was reported to police.

Deaths, Funerals

Harvey Winn

Harvey Winn, 84, died at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Spangler Nursing Home here. He had been in ill health for several months.

A retired farmer, Mr. Winn had lived most of his life in Pickaway County.

Services will be held at the Morrow Funeral Home, Jeffersonville, at 2 p. m. Friday, with the Rev. Clarence Williamson, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, in charge.

Burial will be in the Muhlenberg Cemetery at Darbyville.

Surviving are three sons, Paul, of Jeffersonville, Park of Detroit, Mich., and Harvey of Hobbs, N. M., three daughters, Mrs. Kathryn Owens of Utica, O. Mrs. Evelyn Crawford and Mrs. Pauline Leist, both of Circleville; 15 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Bert Favorite

Bert Favorite, 77, well known in Fayette County as a cattle feeder and hybrid seed corn producer, died Tuesday morning in his home at Troy.

Although he had been in ill health for 12 years, death came unexpectedly following a heart attack.

He was recognized as one of Ohio's top cattle feeders and a pioneer in the use of commercial fertiliers, limestone and hybrid seed corn. He was a bank director and a director of the Miami Mutual Insurance Co. in Troy.

His wife, two sons, two daughters and a sister survive. Mrs. Richard Snyder, Waterloo Rd., is a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will attend the funeral service in Troy at 2 p. m. Friday. The former will be a pallbearer.

Russell T. Andrews

Russell T. Andrews, 56, a former resident of Washington C. H., died Monday in Tucson, Ariz., where he had lived for the last 10 years.

A native of Hamilton, he came here from Columbus before World War II as manager of a personal finance company.

He is survived by his father, Russell R. Andrews, Normandy Hotel, Columbus; his mother, Mrs. Phoebe Andrews, Arlington Heights, Ill.; a son, William R., in Phoenix, Ariz.; a daughter, Mrs. W. P. Hinman of Tucson; six grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Earl Ellis, Arlington Heights.

He was a graduate of Denison University at Granville.

Services will be held at the Schoedinger Funeral Home, 229 E. State St., Columbus, at 1 p. m. Thursday. The body will arrive from Tucson Thursday morning and no visiting hours have been arranged.

Burial will be in the Maple Grove Cemetery, Granville.

HOWARD J. FOSTER—Services were held for Howard J. Foster at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church. Mr. Foster died at 10:35 p. m. last Saturday in Memorial Hospital after suffering a heart attack Nov. 4. The Rev. Neil Hand, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated.

Mr. Foster was for many years an elder of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church. Other Elders of the church cared for the flowers after the services.

Burial was in the Bloomingburg Cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET LIGHT — Services for Mrs. Margaret Light, 86, who died Tuesday in the Hurles Rest Home here, will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home with the Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Light was the widow of Frank Light who died in 1919.

Selden Grange Votes Aid to Polio Project

At a Selden Grange "Open House" meeting last month, the speaker, State Lecturer, R. Bruce Tom, returned the $10. check which the Grange expected to pay him for travel expenses with the request that it be used for some worthy cause or community service.

During the regular monthly session, Tuesday night the Grange voted to add it to the $25 Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation contribution which the Grange had pledged for that purpose.

Mary Ann Morter announced the December Blood Bank call and that the Granges of Fayette County are sponsoring the appeal this time. She stated that 240 prospective donors are needed in order to insure the quota of 200 pints of blood. Selden Grange is cooperating in this drive and assists in the program those who are unable to give blood due to age or physical condition voted to contribute money to help supply the refreshments that will be served to donors.

The Grange voted to support its home economics committee in furnishing lunch for he Emerson Martin g Hereford sale Nov. 29. Mrs. Doris Mark is chairman of the committee.

* * *

MRS. MORTER also conducted a short literary program, built around Veterans Day.She recited "In Flanders Field." This popular poem and song was written during World War I, and those who were old enough recalled the hilarious celebration that took place November 11, 1918, when the armistice was signed, ending that war. The group sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and recalled a list of things to be thankful for. The program closed with two short Thanksgiving contests.

The Grange voted again this year as they did last year to dispense with the Christmas Gift Exchange and to use the money which it would have cost to contribute to the Magnetic Springs Foundation.

Refreshment committee for the meeting was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perrill, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Perrill, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Reser, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dice, Mrs. John Perrill, Miss Anna Alice Frayne, Miss Helen Perrill, Miss Joan McDonald, Carroll Halliday, and Emmitt Ging.

Ohio High Court Ruled To Be Wrong

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's Supreme Court has been overruled by the U. S. Supreme Court on union picketing.

The Ohio court upheld an injunction prohibiting the International Assn. of Machinists from picketing at the C. P. Cavett Co. of Cincinnati. The union lost a National Labor Relations Board election in which it sought to become bargaining agent. Then the union began picketing.

In appealing, the union pointed out that the federal court previously upheld the contention that state courts did not have jurisdiction in cases affecting orders of the NLRB.

Philadelphia Gas Lamps To Burn Day and Night

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia, which still has 7,500 gas street lamps on its narrower lanes and alleys, has decided it can save money by letting the lamps burn day and night.

Streets Commissioner David N. Smallwood told city councilmen Tuesday the city could save $100,000 a year by dispensing with a $29 yearly cost per lamp for an automatic system to turn the gas off each morning, on at night.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average 4-8 degrees above normal. Normal high: 48 north; 52 south. Normal low: 33-35. Mild and above normal Thursday through Saturday. Cooling to normal Sunday and Monday. Rain likely Thursday and Friday and again about Monday.

Teamwork Needed By Ohio Schools

COLUMBUS (AP)—Teamwork by school officials and citizens is a "must" if Ohio is to have good schools, says Dr. Claude V. Courter, superintendent of Cincinnati schools.

Dr. Courter told the opening session of the Ohio School Boards Assn. here Tuesday that "the operation of Ohio's public school system is our state's biggest and most important business."

Board members, educators and citizens must understand each others' roles, agree on educational policy and aims, and then work together in a "partnership for good schools." Dr. Courter said.

Carrier's Planes Pressing Search

HONOLULU (AP)—The Philippine Sea and its covey of planes today entered the critical area in their search for a Honolulu-bound Pan American airliner which vanished last Friday with 44 persons.

The big carrier, with 29 radar-tracking planes and 12 helicopters, completed the first full day of participation in the widespread search Tuesday without a clue.

Its planes are covering a lane 200 miles wide along the airliner's route. Four escort destroyers and two submarines range ahead.

The airliner, Romance of the Skies, vanished after reporting 1,028 miles east of Honolulu.

In the past five years the French cotton industry has increased its productivity in spinning and weaving by slightly more than 50 per cent.

School 'Open House' Ceremonies Popular

Well over 1,200 adults attended the annual "open house" ceremonies held in all five city elementary schools Tuesday evening. The high school will hold its "open house" Wednesday evening.

Teachers were in their classrooms Tuesday evening to talk with parents about their children and explain class projects. Each room in the schools was decorated with examples of student work, both art or academic.

Members of the Future Teacher's Assn. will greet visitors at the high school Wednesday evening for that "open house." The Future Teachers will conduct parents to their student's home room or other places of interest in the school. As in the elementary schools, all teachers will be in their home rooms to discuss their work with the visitors.

Samples of student work will decorate the classrooms.

"Open house" hours at the high school are from 7 to 9 p. m.

The high school will close at 3 p. m. Wednesday to allow teachers to prepare their displays for the visiting parents.

Alfalfa Bug Found in 3 Ohio Counties

COLUMBUS (AP)—An insect pest that feeds on alfalfa, one of Ohio's major forage crops, has been spotted in three southwestern Ohio counties.

C. R. Weaver and D. Lyle Goleman, state entomologists, said the Spotted Alfalfa Aphid has been identified in Hamilton, Clermont and Brown counties.

The insect damages alfalfa plants by sucking its juices out of the leaves and stems. It can kill plants whose growth has been reduced by dry or cold weather.

The wind-borne insect was first seen in New Mexico in 1954. Since then it has been moving steadily northward and has been identified in western Kentucky, western Indiana and Virginia.

Weaver said the situation is not alarming but that Ohio farmers should be aware of the insect's presence. The Ohio Experimental Station has begun a study of ways to control and eliminate the pest.

Dayton Slayer Due For Hearing Friday

DAYTON (AP)—Robert Crites, 31, will be arraigned here Friday for first degree murder.

Montgomery County authorities Tuesday filed the two counts against Crites, who is accused of shooting to death his two teen-age sweethearts Sunday. They plan to ask that Crites be sent to Lima State Hospital for psychiatric tests.

Sheriff's deputies said Crites, married and the father of four, admitted slaying Beverly Eldred, 17, and Deanna Jean Fouch, 16, because he didn't want his wife to find out about the romances.

Garcia Ahead In Filipino Poll

But His Running Mate Trails in Balloting

MANILA (AP) — President Carlos P. Garcia widened his lead in Philippine presidential election returns today, but his running mate trailed far behind a popular former congressman and diplomat.

Garcia, 61-year-old Nacionalista party candidate and political heir of the late Ramon Magsaysay, moved well ahead of Liberal party candidate Jose Yulo, 63-year-old sugar king. Garcia was winning almost 40 per cent of the votes in the five-man race.

In the vice presidential race, Diosdado Macapagal, a Liberal, piled up an overwhelming lead over House Speaker Jose B. Laurel Jr., the Nacionalista nominee and member of one of the Philippines' leading political families.

With Garcia and Macapagal victorious, the Philippines for the first time would have a president and vice president of opposing parties. Both favored continued strong cooperation with the U. S.

The Philippine News Service said if the trend continued, Garcia would win the presidency with a 495,000-vote lead over Yulo.

Sportsmen To Meet At Lodge Thursday

A slate of candidates for next year's officers of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. will be submitted at Thursday night's meeting at the lodge near Buena Vista. The election will be held at the December meeting. Thursday night's meeting is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Highlighting the meeting will be a discussion of the hunting laws and Game Protector Dave Krupla will be there to answer questions.

Part of the discussion, it was said, "undoubtedly will be on the question of getting permission from the land owner."

The pheasant and rabbit hunting seasons open Friday.

The secretary said the new membership cards will be ready by Thursday and that they will be put out among the present members at this meeting.

'Peanut Brittle' Joke Not Funny, Jury Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Mrs. Bertha Ekman opened the can labeled "peanut brittle" she found it wasn't, and the judgment she got from a jury wasn't peanuts.

The jury awarded her $25,000 Tuesday. Mrs. Ekman testified that when she opened the phony can of peanut brittle, paper snakes sprang out at her.

She sued cafe owner James Munson for $117,250, claiming that the shock caused her to fall backward and that she required hospitalization four times as a result.

Car Driven Away For 'Tryout' Ride Not Brought Back

A man and a woman, both about 35 years of age, went out for a test ride in a 1956 Ford car owned by Carroll Halliday, Inc., 907 Columbus Ave., Tuesday night. . .and never came back, police reported today.

Still missing late Wednesday morning, the auto was listed as a stolen car with the State Highway Patrol.

The couple, who represented themselves as Temple St. residents, told salesman they owned a 1953 Ford that was not in running condition and that they were "interested in making a deal."

They left the garage about 4:30 p. m. When they had not returned at 7:30 p. m., the alleged theft was reported to police.

Deaths, Funerals

Harvey Winn

Harvey Winn, 84, died at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Spangler Nursing Home here. He had been in ill health for several months.

A retired farmer, Mr. Winn had lived most of his life in Pickaway County.

Services will be held at the Morrow Funeral Home, Jeffersonville, at 2 p. m. Friday, with the Rev. Clarence Williamson, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, in charge.

Burial will be in the Muhlenberg Cemetery at Darbyville.

Surviving are three sons, Paul, of Jeffersonville, Park of Detroit, Mich., and Harvey of Hobbs, N. M., three daughters, Mrs. Kathryn Owens of Utica, O. Mrs. Evelyn Crawford and Mrs. Pauline Leist, both of Circleville; 15 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Bert Favorite

Bert Favorite, 77, well known in Fayette County as a cattle feeder and hybrid seed corn producer, died Tuesday morning in his home at Troy.

Although he had been in ill health for 12 years, death came unexpectedly following a heart attack.

He was recognized as one of Ohio's top cattle feeders and a pioneer in the use of commercial fertiliers, limestone and hybrid seed corn. He was a bank director and a director of the Miami Mutual Insurance Co. in Troy.

His wife, two sons, two daughters and a sister survive. Mrs. Richard Snyder, Waterloo Rd., is a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will attend the funeral service in Troy at 2 p. m. Friday. The former will be a pallbearer.

Russell T. Andrews

Russell T. Andrews, 56, a former resident of Washington C. H., died Monday in Tucson, Ariz., where he had lived for the last 10 years.

A native of Hamilton, he came here from Columbus before World War II as manager of a personal finance company.

He is survived by his father, Russell B. Andrews, Normandy Hotel, Columbus; his mother, Mrs. Phoebe Andrews, Arlington Heights, Ill.; a son, William R., in Phoenix, Ariz.; a daughter, Mrs. W. P. Hinman of Tucson; six grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Earl Ellis, Arlington Heights.

He was a graduate of Denison University at Granville.

Services will be held at the Schoedinger Funeral Home, 229 E. State St., Columbus, at 1 p. m. Thursday. The body will arrive from Tucson Thursday morning and no visiting hours have been arranged.

Burial will be in the Maple Grove Cemetery, Granville.

HOWARD J. FOSTER—Services were held for Howard J. Foster at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church. Mr. Foster died at 10:35 p. m. last Saturday in Memorial Hospital after suffering a heart attack Nov. 4. The Rev. Neil Hand, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated.

Mr. Foster was for many years an elder of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church. Other Elders of the church cared for the flowers after the services.

Burial was in the Bloomingburg Cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET LIGHT — Services for Mrs. Margaret Light, 86, who died Tuesday in the Hurles Rest Home here, will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home with the Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Light was the widow of Frank Light who died in 1919.

Selden Grange Votes Aid to Polio Project

At a Selden Grange "Open House" meeting last month, the speaker, State Lecturer, R. Bruce Tom, returned the $10. check which the Grange expected to pay him for travel expenses with the request that it be used for some worthy cause or community service.

During the regular monthly session, Tuesday night the Grange voted to add it to the $25 Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation contribution which the Grange had pledged for that purpose.

Mary Ann Morter announced the December Blood Bank call and that the Granges of Fayette County are sponsoring the appeal this time. She stated that 240 prospective donors are needed in order to insure the quota of 200 pints of blood. Selden Grange is cooperating in this drive and assists in the program those who are unable to give blood due to age or physical condition voted to contribute money to help supply the refreshments that will be served to donors.

The Grange voted to support its home economics committee in furnishing lunch for he Emerson Marting Hereford sale Nov. 29. Mrs. Doris Mark is chairman of the committee.

* * *

MRS. MORTER also conducted a short literary program, built around Veterans Day.She recited "In Flanders Field." This popular poem and song was written during World War I, and those who were old enough recalled the hilarious celebration that took place November 11, 1918, when the armistice was signed, ending that war. The group sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and recalled a list of things to be thankful for. The program closed with two short Thanksgiving contests.

The Grange voted again this year as they did last year to dispense with the Christmas Gift Exchange and to use the money which it would have cost to contribute to the Magnetic Springs Foundation.

Refreshment committee for the meeting was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perrill, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Perrill, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Reser, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dice, Mrs. John Perrill, Miss Anna Alice Frayne, Miss Helen Perrill, Miss Joan McDonald, Carroll Halliday, and Emmitt Ging.

Ohio High Court Ruled To Be Wrong

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's Supreme Court has been overruled by the U. S. Supreme Court on union picketing.

The Ohio court upheld an injunction prohibiting the International Assn. of Machinists from picketing at the C. P. Cavett Co. of incinnati. The union lost a National Labor Relations Board election in which it sought to become bargaining agent. Then the union began picketing.

In appealing, the union pointed out that the federal court previously upheld the contention that state courts did not have jurisdiction in cases affecting orders of the NLRB.

Philadelphia Gas Lamps To Burn Day and Night

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia, which still has 7,500 gas street lamps on its narrower lanes and alleys, has decided it can save money by letting the lamps burn day and night.

Streets Commissioner David N. Smallwood told city councilmen Tuesday the city could save $100,000 a year by dispensing with a $29 yearly cost per lamp for an automatic system to turn the gas off each morning, on at night.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average 4-8 degrees above normal. Normal high: 48 north; 52 south. Normal low: 33-35. Mild and above normal Thursday through Saturday. Cooling to normal Sunday and Monday. Rain likely Thursday and Friday and again about Monday.

Teamwork Needed By Ohio Schools

COLUMBUS (AP)—Teamwork by school officials and citizens is a "must" if Ohio is to have good schools, says Dr. Claude V. Courter, superintendent of Cincinnati schools.

Dr. Courter told the opening session of the Ohio School Boards Assn. here Tuesday that "the operation of Ohio's public school system is our state's biggest and most important business."

Board members, educators and citizens must understand each others' roles, agree on educational policy and aims, and then work together in a "partnership for good schools." Dr. Courter said.

Carrier's Planes Pressing Search

HONOLULU (AP)—The Philippine Sea and its covey of planes today entered the critical area in their search for a Honolulu-bound Pan American airliner which vanished last Friday with 44 persons.

The big carrier, with 29 radar-tracking planes and 12 helicopters, completed the first full day of participation in the widespread search Tuesday without a clue.

Its planes are covering a lane 200 miles wide along the airliner's route. Four escort destroyers and two submarines range ahead.

The airliner, Romance of the Skies, vanished after reporting 1,028 miles east of Honolulu.

In the past five years the French cotton industry has increased its productivity in spinning and weaving by slightly more than 50 per cent.

School 'Open House' Ceremonies Popular

Well over 1,200 adults attended the annual "open house" ceremonies held in all five city elementary schools Tuesday evening. The high school will hold its "open house" Wednesday evening.

Teachers were in their classrooms Tuesday evening to talk with parents about their children and explain class projects. Each room in the schools was decorated with examples of student work, both art or academic.

Members of the Future Teacher's Assn. will greet visitors at the high school Wednesday evening for that "open house." The Future Teachers will conduct parents to their student's home room or other places of interest in the school. As in the elementary schools, all teachers will be in their home rooms to discuss their work with the visitors.

Samples of student work will decorate the classrooms.

"Open house" hours at the high school are from 7 to 9 p. m.

The high school will close at 3 p. m. Wednesday to allow teachers to prepare their displays for the visiting parents.

Alfalfa Bug Found in 3 Ohio Counties

COLUMBUS (AP)—An insect pest that feeds on alfalfa, one of Ohio's major forage crops, has been spotted in three southwestern Ohio counties.

C. R. Weaver and D. Lyle Goleman, state entomologists, said the Spotted Alfalfa Aphid has been identified in Hamilton, Clermont and Brown counties.

The insect damages alfalfa plants by sucking its juices out of the leaves and stems. It can kill plants whose growth has been reduced by dry or cold weather.

The wind-borne insect was first seen in New Mexico in 1954. Since then it has been moving steadily northward and has been identified in western Kentucky, western Indiana and Virginia.

Weaver said the situation is not alarming but that Ohio farmers should be aware of the insect's presence. The Ohio Experimental Station has begun a study of ways to control and eliminate the pest.

Dayton Slayer Due For Hearing Friday

DAYTON (AP)—Robert Crites, 31, will be arraigned here Friday for first degree murder.

Montgomery County authorities Tuesday filed the two counts against Crites, who is accused of shooting to death his two teen-age sweethearts Sunday. They plan to ask that Crites be sent to Lima State Hospital for psychiatric tests.

Sheriff's deputies said Crites, married and the father of four, admitted slaying Beverly Eldred, 17, and Deanna Jean Fouch, 16, because he didn't want his wife to find out about the romances.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

At the beginning of this week it was estimated 10 per cent of the corn crop remained to be picked, and with a full week of favorable weather, little would be left to harvest by Saturday.

Several times during the fall, picking has been interrupted by rain. This occurred two days last week.

The yield in this county is placed a little lower than that of last year. Some farmers have reported better yields than last year, but others have said their yields were many bushels under the 1956 average.

The early planted corn, where it was not drowned out by the heavy rains soon after the corn came up, proved to be the big yielder this fall.

Replanted corn was caught in the late summer drought and failed to mature properly.

I notice there are still a few fields of soybeans remaining to be combined. These probably will all be harvested this week.

Farmers have found the fall rains sufficient to keep the pastures in top condition for fall grazing and this has meant a vast saving in other feed for livestock.

THOSE LATE BLOOMERS

Because of their hardiness, wide range in color, snappy fragrance and late blooming qualities, no flower is more popular with Fayette countians than chrysanthemums, unless it is roses.

Anyway, nearly all flower lovers— and that includes most of us— have at least a few chrysanthemums which are among the most hardy of all perennials and will survive a surprisingly large amount of freeing weather.

The garden variety of "mums" have a wide range in color and size. The greenhouse varieties, largely the result of hybridation, grow to enormous size and are much in demand for cut flowers.

In the past few years potted chrysanthemums have suddenly become popular and are being grown in large quantities, due to their desirability because of their beauty and lasting qualities.

Even though it is near mid-November, I have seen a surprisingly large number of beautiful chrysanthemums on lawns and in gardens and I expect to see some of them in bloom as late as Dec. 1., which has been the case many times.

WALNUT YIELD HEAVY

Lovers of black walnuts are finding them abundant this year, the first time in three years that the crop has been normal here.

Black walnuts are not only delicious when eaten raw, roasted and in cakes, but also are tops in walnut fudge.

In most instances walnuts drop from the trees and literally go to waste, even along the highways where they could be gathered readily.

However I know many persons who always gather walnuts when there is a crop, and enjoy the delicious kernels in whatever way they are used.

LOOKED LIKE "SPUTNIK"

Recently when Roscoe Whiteside, of Paint Township president of the Fayette County Hobby Club, placed a strange object amid the displays at a meeting of the club, some persons had their misgivings. They thought instantly that perhaps the Russian "Sputnik" must have dwindled and fallen in Fayette County.

The object was a sphere, bristling with what appeared to be wooden pegs (matches), was some four inches in diameter. It was brown with irregular white streaks around it.

It proved to be a "ripe" puffball, or mushroom, Roscoe had picked up in his pasture and when he told about it all fears of Sputnik dangers were allayed.

Captain T. F. Parrett, 87, of Chillicothe Rd., died suddenly.

FIRST FLIGHT—Britain's "Rotodyne" airliner rises vertically at the Fairey Aviation company factory as it starts its first test flight. It is described as the world's first airliner capable of vertical take-offs. Once airborne it flies horizontally and gets its lift from stubby wings and the rotor. It will carry 48 passengers and is expected to go into service in 1960. The first flight lasted only a few minutes at an altitude of 100 feet. (International)

Tractor Firm Plans Air Lift For 3,000

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — The J. I. Case Co. will fly some 3,000 implement dealers, bankers and newsmen to Phoenix, Ariz., in the next five weeks for a special showing of its new line of tractors.

The company describes it as the biggest civilian air lift in the nation's history. All of the persons making the flight will be guests of the Case firm.

During the five-week period Case hopes to receive 60 million dollars worth of orders.

Marc. B. Rojtman, executive vice president, said the new tractor line is the result of a multi-million-dollar product development gram.)

First arrivals at Phoenix will be officials of the company's banks, major investment firms and the press who will attend a preview and field demonstration Thursday. Then will follow present and prospective dealers adding up to some 3,000 persons.

GETTING TO KNOW HER — Douglas Way, 11, hugs his sister, Aurora, 9, on her arrival in Boston from Communist China. In 1949 Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Way, both Chinese, went to Boston on a visit. They had to leave Aurora behind in Shanghai with her grandmother because the girl was ill. Twenty days after they left, the Chinese Reds captured the city and wouldn't let Aurora leave. But last winter she was smuggled out in a Chinese junk and taken to Hong Kong. Finally the red tape got unwound and she continued on to the U. S. (International Soundphoto)

Chestnut Tree Revival Seen

New Missouri Strand May Resist Blight

By DION HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

If the spreading chestnut tree should return to the American scene, could the village smithy be far behind?

Though the two disappeared at about the same time, there's little to be learned in further comparison.

But the chestnut tree—the real one, son, not the hoss chestnut nor the fancy latter day Chinese chestnut—may get another lease on life after all in this atomic age. And perhaps with some atomic help.

A generation ago, the European chestnut blight swept across the eastern United States. The chestnut forests of Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and New York were wiped out. Until recently, the only known survivors were in a stubborn grove in the Appalachians, and they showed little promise of really being blight resistant.

Then, however, a 2½ acre stand of trees was located near a conservation commission fire station in Missouri. Dr. W. Ralph Singleton, experimental farm director for the University of Virginia and Dr. Edward R. Buckner, assistant professor of forestry at the University of Tennessee, found out about these stalwarts and asked Missouri's help.

Roy Degler, senior farm forester of the Missouri Conservation Department, collected some 500 pounds—that amounts to 65,000-of chestnuts and split them between the two university experiment stations. Virginia got 200 pounds, Tennessee 300.

The project now is to plant some of the Missouri chestnuts to learn whether they're blight resistant, and to irradiate others—mostly with cobalt—in an effort to turn out a blight proof tree.

Ohioan Makes Certain He Gets Locked Up

WASHINGTON (AP)— John P. Tuite of Akron, Ohio, drew a 90-day sentence Tuesday after stealing a car. Police said Tuite asked to be locked up Oct. 19, but was refused because he had committed no crime. Tuite solved that, police said, by taking a car belonging to Municipal Court Judge Edward A. Beard and driving it to nearby Alexandria, Va., where he surrendered.

Stand Taken by Senator Knowland Praised

Quite a number of Fayette County men and women who either heard or read the speech delivered by Senator Knowland of California some weeks ago at a Columbus Republican dinner, attended by delegations from all over Central Ohio, have been heard to express high favor of the stand the senator has taken on certain issues now before the country.

Knowland, the present minority leader in the U. S. Senate, has announced his candidacy for the governorship of his state and will not attempt to return to the Senate.

There are many who believe that, if he is elected as California's governor it will be the forerunner of a campaign being started for him as a Republican presidential candidate.

Whatever may be Sen. Knowland's intentions, his courage in his statements as to his position, cannot be questioned. He has strongly endorsed a state right - to-work law which would provide that a man can join or not join a union, as he desires, and that he shall not be denied the right to work at his trade in either case.

Senator Knowland also has a program of federal labor legislation which he will work for when the next session of Congress convenes this coming January. Points in this program include: Right of union members to elect their officers by secret ballot; provision for recall of officers by secret ballot; requirement that strikes be called only by vote of the members, through a secret ballot; legal protection of union welfare and other funds; adoption of what amounts to an initiative and referendum system whereby union members can override actions of their officers.

Needless to say, the Senator will be denounced as "anti - labor" because of his position on these matters. The fact is that his proposals, if enacted, would be a boon to all labor and the country as well. Unions would get their membership on the basis of service— not by coercion, intimidation, and unbridled monopoly power. This would inevitably make for better and more effective unions. And the Senator's other proposed protections would give union members a vitally - needed means of getting rid of the racketeer, the goon, the crook, and the dictator. Can any honest man doubt the necessity for that after the facts produced by the McClellan committee of the U. S. Senate.

Picture - Taking--an Ordeal

By Hal Boyle

The tribal savage often dreads a camera for fear this magic box by imprisoning his image will also capture his soul.

The civilized man has an even more melancholy fear—that the camera neither will catch his likeness nor reflect his soul. He feels the camera always lies when it's pointed at him.

Protest as much as she may that "I know this will turn out awful," the woman secretly is sure that actually, by some miracle of modern chemistry, the photographer will manage to make her look all right. She actually enjoys the experience.

The man, on the other hand, goes to the photographer as he does to the guillotine. He knows neither art nor science can save him. How can he end up looking right when he knows he feels wrong to begin with?

It is hard to say when man's fear of the photographer starts. Probably it is in the childhood when, during the taking of a snapshot, some family onlooker calls facetiously:

"Be careful. Your face may break the camera."

"Not bad, not bad," the family murmurs sympathetically.

Not bad? Are they crazy? Is this the way you really look to others? Are your ears really that big? Is your face really that insipid—half-anthropoid, half- adenoid?

He won't mind his wedding pictures so much, no matter how they turn out, because a man honestly expects to look somewhat ridiculous on his wedding day. Nor will he complain overmuch against his passport pictures, as women do.

After 40, a man will go to the photographer only under family duress or group pressure. When the official picture is taken at the annual office banquet, he tries to bury his face in the fried chicken, or hide behind the man in front of him.

When he is, at times, forced to make the galling trip to a photographic studio he is prepared for the worst. All his life he has jeered at John Barrymore because the actor preferred to have his picture from an angle that showed his favored profile.

Now he envies Barrymore. After all, Barrymore was lucky to have one side that looked better than the other. He wasn't dismally bad from all angles.

When the portrait is finally delivered and unwrapped, he knows what the family will say: "Not bad, not bad."

After they have gone to bed, he sits and looks at the picture all by himself. Not bad? Are they crazy? Is he really that fat? What did the camera do to rob him of so much hair?

"Hmmm, not bad, not bad," he murmurs. "By golly, I had a good strong face as a kid. But they had decent photographers then."

As he goes to bed, however, he will realize, if he's honest, that 25 years from now the new picture he just had made will look pretty good to him, too. Everything is better 25 years later.

The Cost of Bad Training

By George Sokolsky

Let us look at it another way: there is no national monopoly on brains or ability. It is a question of the will to achieve, the will to survive, the belief in the purposes of collective and individual life.

The two Sputniks are not a product of Marxism or of Leninism, but of the knowledge, capabilities and application of a group of men to an objective— to the objective of national pride and national survival.

That has been so throughout the history of mankind. We built a great nation not by security but by endless, back - breaking labor— labor of the mind and labor of the body. It is not only labor that counts but the capacity to sacrifice and subordinate oneself to a cause and a purpose.

A friend recently told me of a young lady who came for a good job, one for which she would be over-paid, if merit were the standard, but who would not take the job because of the requirement of working half a day on Saturday. That interfered with her social life. Her ancestors worked harder than that to build a competence in a free society.

Another person told me of an instance in which a trusted employee walked off a job without warning or notice because she was weary of her private associations and decided to leave town. Another told me of the failure of employes to accept any responsibility at all, doing just enough work not to justify dismissal. Such stories are accepted as normal these days.

But that is not the spirit that produces the Sputnik. Recently I listened to some youngsters who went into various ROTCs and all were discouraged because the terms of enlistment, of service, of promotion are constantly being changed, so that nobody can tell from one year to another where he stands. The arbitrariness of such changes discourages many young people from joining the services because they are more willing to take a chance on not becoming conscripts when the dividends for putting in four years of hard work during college years are so uncertain.

This weakness in our military organization is not limited to the ROTC. It runs all through the special organizations which are doing scientific work. where the pay is meagre and the continuance of work uncertain. Scientists and technicians take these jobs because they want to be in on the developments but as soon as private industry calls, they answer the call. It is not that they are unpatriotic; it is that their government regards them as secondary persons.

One of the problems that every school, every home, every employer encounters is the lack of respect, of self-discipline in most young people. It is to be noted in dress, in speech, in attitude. It often borders on insolence and when insolence is regarded as a mark of freedom and individuality, it is an index to social decay.

The Russians have a term for it, "hooliganism," and the social offense is punishable as it should be. A good spanking early enough or a clip on the jaw later might not altogether cure but it could avert disaster.

What happens to a society of undisciplined individuals is that there is a substitution of values, a vulgarization of taste. When Sputnik II was orbited, Ingrid Bergman, an actress, announced a return to Hollywood. Some newspapers equated these two items as of equal value. although Sputnik II is probably the most revolutionary event in history and Ingrid Bergman was just a press agent's blurb.

In fact, if Sputnik did its nasty business, there would be no actresses, no you and no me. For what Sputnik eventually can do is to throw a beam upon any part of the earth and destroy whatever the beam strikes. Imagine what can happen with a dozen Sputniks orbiting the earth or bombarding the moon or bombarding each other up in the distant yonder—and what will that do to us?

I have, I hope, a sense of the humorous and the funny, but there is nothing funny about Sputnik. To the undisciplined mind, anything is good for a laugh but reality.

What You Can Expect As Hospital Patient

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Sooner or later, it's probable that you, or some member of your household, will have to go to a hospital. Perhaps it will be only short stay for an examination. Maybe it will be for surgery or a serious illness.

No matter what the reason, it is apt to be an unnerving experience for some people. Let me urge you to use a little common sense to make your stay as pleasant as possible.

Our hospitals are crowded and, for the most part, understaffed these days. Because of this, it is more important than ever that all patients be understanding and as friendly as possible.

First, get to the hospital on time. Generally, your doctor will make the arrangements for your admittance. Be sure to ask him when you are to check in, then get there when you are supposed to.

Take along only what you will need: a toothbrush, toothpaste, comb, robe, slippers and maybe reading and writing materials.

You will be only one of many patients, so you'll have to accept the regimentation that is necessary in hospital routine. This doesn't mean you must do everything you are told without asking any questions.

Often you'll be able to cooperate more fully if you know just why you are required to take some medication or to do something in particular. Doctors and nurses are busy, of course, but they will be happy to explain these things to you.

Don't be too critical. Staff shortages often cause inconvenience to individual patients. Maybe your meals will be a little late. Maybe the attendantds will be a little slow in bringing you what you have requested. Be understanding. You must realize that the nurses will do all they can for you and in a kindly way,

On the other hand, don't fail to report any apparent lack of attention to your physician when he comes to check your condition. If you really have a just complaint, your doctor will see that it is carried to the proper hospital authorities.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R. W.: I have heard that when a person has multiple sclerosis, he has difficulty in talking. Is this true?

Answer: In some cases, the person may have a speech difficulty. He may enunciate his words slowly and have a tendency to hesitate at the beginning of a word or syllable.

Ohio Farmer Soundly Raps Grain Penalty

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — An Ohio wheat farmer says he would rather give up his $25,000 farm to foreclosure by the federal government than pay $420 in penalties for overplanting.

On Nov. 1, Dr. P. S. Whiteleather of nearby Minerva was given 10 days to pay the fine or face foreclosure action on his 150-acre farm, according to D. J. Cimino, assistant district attorney.

Whiteleather, through his attorney, Tuesday told the government to foreclose because "I'm so convinced I'm right I'd give up anything."

He is president of the Independent Farmers of Ohio, a group opposed to government wheat quotas and subsidies. They refuse to give data on their plantings and their farms are posted against trespass to keep federal agents from making wheat acreage surveys.

"My understanding is that the property would be seized as an absolute last resort," Cimino said.

A similar case involving Robert Albright of Columbiana was appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court last month, but the court refuse to review it.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai Stevenson sounds as cautious about helping the Eisenhower administration on foreign policy as a man walking barefoot through a field of broken bottles.

Stevenson, a little like Hamlet sometimes in trying to make up his mind to do or not to do, issued a very carefully phrased statement on the help he'd give.

He stated his position only after the White House erroneously said he had turned down a suggestion that he help.

But since Stevenson is a handy man with the English language, his phrasing is hardly an accident. Translated into very simple English, it sounds like: "I don't want to stick my neck out too far."

At the same time President Eisenhower, who wanted Stevenson's help, played just as cautious about asking him. In fact, he didn't ask him. He had secretary of State Dulles do it.

This is an old story with the Eisenhower administration. The same kind of thing happened with former President Truman, whose relations with Eisenhower have been frigid since 1952.

Early this year Greece and Turkey, planning to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the help Truman started giving them in 1947, wanted him to visit both countries in March. They told the Eisenhower administration.

Eisenhower talked it over with Dulles. But it was Dulles, not Eisenhower, who sent the invitation to Truman. Truman rejected it, saying he had other engagements.

When Eisenhower goes to Paris next month to try to glue American alliances tighter, he'll be in a ticklish spot. He'll need as much solid American backing as he can get, from Democrats as well as Republicans.

Dulles asked Stevenson for help in working out a policy for Paris. Stevenson, although he lost two presidential campaigns, still is titular head of the Democratic party.

But he can't speak for all Democrats, least of all for the most important Democrats between elections: The Democrats in Congress. If they don't like the policy produced at Paris, they'll be free to criticize.

If Stevenson helps make that policy, and the Democrats don't like it, he's in danger of being blasted along with Eisenhower from inside his own party. Tuesday he issued a statement which said:

He could not "undertake to formulate the President's policies" but "I would gladly review and discuss our government's proposals before they were put in final shape."

By that statement he left the door open to criticize any policy he doesn't agree with, although he didn't say so.

Stand Taken by Senator Knowland Praised

Quite a number of Fayette County men and women who either heard or read the speech delivered by Senator Knowland of California some weeks ago at a Columbus Republican dinner, attended by delegations from all over Central Ohio, have been heard to express high favor of the stand the senator has taken on certain issues now before the country.

Knowland, the present minority leader in the U. S. Senate, has announced his candidacy for the governorship of his state and will not attempt to return to the Senate.

There are many who believe that, if he is elected as California's governor it will be the forerunner of a campaign being started for him as a Republican presidential candidate.

Whatever may be Sen. Knowland's intentions, his courage in his statements as to his position, cannot be questioned. He has strongly endorsed a state right - to-work law which would provide that a man can join or not join a union, as he desires, and that he shall not be denied the right to work at his trade in either case.

Senator Knowland also has a program of federal labor legislation which he will work for when the next session of Congress convenes this coming January. Points in this program include: Right of union members to elect their officers by secret ballot; provision for recall of officers by secret ballot; requirement that strikes be called only by vote of the members, through a secret ballot; legal protection of union welfare and other funds; adoption of what amounts to an initiative and referendum system whereby union members can override actions of their officers.

Needless to say, the Senator will be denounced as "anti - labor" because of his position on these matters. The fact is that his proposals, if enacted, would be a boon to all labor and the country as well. Unions would get their membership on the basis of service— not by coercion, intimidation, and unbridled monopoly power. This would inevitably make for better and more effective unions. And the Senator's other proposed protections would give union members a vitally - needed means of getting rid of the racketeer, the goon, the crook, and the dictator. Can any honest man doubt the necessity for that after the facts produced by the McClellan committee of the U. S. Senate.

Picture - Taking--an Ordeal

By Hal Boyle

The tribal savage often dreads a camera for fear this magic box by imprisoning his image will also capture his soul.

The civilized man has an even more melancholy fear—that the camera neither will catch his likeness nor reflect his soul. He feels the camera always lies when it's pointed at him.

Protest as much as she may that "I know this will turn out awful," the woman secretly is sure that actually, by some miracle of modern chemistry, the photographer will manage to make her look all right. She actually enjoys the experience.

The man, on the other hand, goes to the photographer as he does to the guillotine. He knows neither art nor science can save him. How can he end up looking right when he knows he feels wrong to begin with?

It is hard to say when man's fear of the photographer starts. Probably it is in the childhood when, during the taking of a snapshot, some family onlooker calls facetiously:

"Be careful. Your face may break the camera."

"Not bad, not bad," the family murmurs sympathetically.

Not bad? Are they crazy? Is this the way you really look to others? Are your ears really that big? Is your face really that insipid—half-anthropoid, half- adenoid?

He won't mind his wedding pictures so much, no matter how they turn out, because a man honestly expects to look somewhat ridiculous on his wedding day. Nor will he complain overmuch against his passport pictures, as women do.

After 40, a man will go to the photographer only under family duress or group pressure. When the official picture is taken at the annual office banquet, he tries to bury his face in the fried chicken, or hide behind the man in front of him.

When he is, at times, forced to make the galling trip to a photographic studio he is prepared for the worst. All his life he has jeered at John Barrymore because the actor preferred to have his picture from an angle that showed his favored profile.

Now he envies Barrymore. After all, Barrymore was lucky to have one side that looked better than the other. He wasn't dismally bad from all angles.

When the portrait is finally delivered and unwrapped, he knows what the family will say: "Not bad, not bad."

After they have gone to bed, he sits and looks at the picture all by himself. Not bad? Are they crazy? Is he really that fat? What did the camera do to rob him of so much hair?

"Hmmm, not bad, not bad," he murmurs. "By golly, I had a good strong face as a kid. But they had decent photographers then."

As he goes to bed, however, he will realize, if he's honest, that 25 years from now the new picture he just had made will look pretty good to him, too. Everything is better 25 years later.

Stevenson, a little like Hamlet sometimes in trying to make up his mind to do or not to do, issued a very carefully phrased statement on the help he'd give.

He stated his position only after the White House erroneously said he had turned down a suggestion that he help.

But since Stevenson is a handy man with the English language, his phrasing is hardly an accident. Translated into very simple English, it sounds like: "I don't want to stick my neck out too far."

At the same time President Eisenhower, who wanted Stevenson's help, played just as cautious about asking him. In fact, he didn't ask him. He had secretary of State Dulles do it.

This is an old story with the Eisenhower administration. The same kind of thing happened with former President Truman, whose relations with Eisenhower have been frigid since 1952.

Early this year Greece and Turkey, planning to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the help Truman started giving them in 1947, wanted him to visit both countries in March. They told the Eisenhower administration.

Eisenhower talked it over with Dulles. But it was Dulles, not Eisenhower, who sent the invitation to Truman. Truman rejected it, saying he had other engagements.

When Eisenhower goes to Paris next month to try to glue American alliances tighter, he'll be in a ticklish spot. He'll need as much solid American backing as he can get, from Democrats as well as Republicans.

Dulles asked Stevenson for help in working out a policy for Paris. Stevenson, although he lost two presidential campaigns, still is titular head of the Democratic party.

But he can't speak for all Democrats, least of all for the most important Democrats between elections: The Democrats in Congress. If they don't like the policy produced at Paris, they'll be free to criticize.

If Stevenson helps make that policy, and the Democrats don't like it, he's in danger of being blasted along with Eisenhower from inside his own party. Tuesday he issued a statement which said:

He could not "undertake to formulate the President's policies" but "I would gladly review and discuss our government's proposals before they were put in final shape."

By that statement he left the door open to criticize any policy he doesn't agree with, although he didn't say so.

Clinton Again Due To Feel Struggle Over Segregation

Editor's Note: Associated Press Correspondent Relman Morin is touring the South, reappraising developments and attitudes in the wake of school integration disputes.

By RELMAN MORIN

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—The great struggle over school desegregation is touching Clinton again this week.

Six men and a woman are scheduled to return Wednesday to the same federal courtroom in Knoxville where the history-making "Clinton trials" took place last summer.

The seven—including Northern segregationist John Kasper—were convicted of conspiracy to violate a federal injunction against interfering with the enrollment of Negro children in Clinton High School. An all-white jury handed down the verdict.

What's the atmosphere in Clinton today?

How has the pretty little mountain town accepted desegregation?

Most important, how did the people and the students react to the news of violence around another high school—the one in Little Rock?

Sooner or later, everybody you talk with in Clinton today uses the word "quiet." There have been a few flurries. But over-all, they say, "quiet."

Six Negro children, four boys and two girls, are attending classes in the high school today.

They enrolled Sept. 3. That was the day when Gov. Orval Faubus ordered National Guardsmen to keep Negroes out of Central High School in Little Rock.

The Clinton Six go to school without escort. No police action has been necessary to protect them in and out of its halls.

The two boys have not attempted to sign up for football or any competitive sports. But all six children are in physical education classes with white students.

Most of them go home for lunch. One or two, however, eat in the school cafeteria.

None has attended any of the school's social functions.

"They're not forbidden," says W. D. Human, the high school principal. "They just didn't come. I suppose it's a matter of choice with them, just like the choices of people in other social matters."

This latter is an important point.

In the South, to a far greater extent than the North, the school is an active center of social activity for both children and their parents. Segregationists usually argue that desegregation will mean that Negroes will attend these functions in the schools, damaging their value.

Human came to Clinton last August after the "Clinton trials" and after the previous principal resigned.

He is 52, soft-spoken, a Tennesseean with an air of quiet firmness.

"You consider the problem and you wonder if you are equal to it," he says. "I certainly didn't go into it with my eyes closed."

Classes opened. The Negroes came to school.

On the morning of Oct. 9, leaflets began to appear in the halls of the high school. They said: "We are in sympathy with Little Rock: we too have faced bayonets, Walk out—stay out. Please pass this on."

Human said he did not try to discover who was passing out the leaflets. "The kids themselves brought the leaflets to me," he says. "They were wonderful. Except for a few, they just ignored it."

However, he says, someone tried to organize a mass walkout, but it failed to succeed.

And that, says Human, was the end of it.

Enrollment is actually higher today than last year or the year before—when a federal court ordered integration—and so is average daily attendance.

Amendment Is Defeated By 343,703

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today the so called Noble amendment to the Ohio Constitution was defeated in last Tuesday's election by 343,703 votes.

Returns based on mail reports from county election Boards showed the vote was: Yes 696,513, No 1,040,216.

Gov. C. William O'Neill backed the proposal that would have permitted appointment of non-residens to non-elective public offices in Ohio. The constitution now requires a year's residence for such appointees.

The ban prevented O'Neill from naming Charles M. Noble, former New Jersey Turnpike engineer, as state highway director until Noble has lived in Ohio a full year. He is now carried on the state payroll as secretary to the governor in charge of highways.

Unofficial mail returns on two other constitutional amendments that were adopted gave these totals:

To allow otherwise qualified voters living in Ohio less than a year the right to vote for president and vice president, yes 1,070,301, no 659,946.

To permit counties to change their form of government, yes 830,891, no 799,163.

Total of number of electors voting was 2,299,163, Brown reported.)

Anti-Pinball Laws Facing High Court

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's Supreme Court yesterday heard arguments on suits seeking to knock out Columbus' anti-pinball ordinances and put them under study.

The court gave no indication of when it would rule on the cases that attack ordinances described as models for municipalities seeking to ban devices used for gambling.

Counsel for pinball operators contended the city lacked authority to ban devices used only for amusement. He said the machines in question lack "free play" devices and thus are not conducive to gambling.

"These machines cannot be prohibited because they are not inherently evil," insisted Attorney W. B. McLeskey. "There is a distinction between prohibition and regulation . . . if these ordinances stand, council can prohibit any amusement, including playing cards."

John C. Young, assistant city attorney, said the ban falls within the scope of city police powers and thus the ordinances are not arbitrary and unreasonable.

The ordinances ban ownership and exhibition of games which encourage gambling, register odds or scores or may be converted into gambling devices.

Hot Weather Influence Seen In Mental Defective Births

CLEVELAND (AP) — Evidence of an indirect hot weather influence in increasing the birth of mental defectives was reported today by two Ohio State University researchers.

They said the evidence shows that the hotter summers eventually are followed by the birth of more mental defectives than the cooler ones.

But the researchers theorized that it is not hot weather in itself that produces the effect but rather that it is due to "inadequate dietary inake" due to the heat on the part of some mothers among those whose early pregnancy occurs during the hot summer months.

So they offered an implied plea in a report to the 85th annual meeting of the American Public Health Assn. (APHA) for expectant mothers to maintain adequate diets at all times.

Dr. Hilda Knobloch and Benjamin Pasamanick gave this account of their research:

They said a study of admissions of mentally defective children to the Columbus State School, born in the years 1913-1948, showed that "significantly more" had been born in the winter months, January, February and March, than in other months of the year.

They also said that it is known that the third month after conception is the period during pregnancy when the cerebral cortex—the other gray layer of the brain which controls the most complex nervous functions—of the unborn child is becoming organized. They said "and damage which occurred at that time could affect intellectual functioning."

The months when this might happen with respect to babies born in January, February and March, they asserted, "would be June, July and August, the hot summer months when pregnant women might decrease their food intake, particularly protein, to dangerously low levels and consequently damage their developing babies."

Lausche Sees No Gain in Buying Friends

NEW YORK (AP) — America is making a mistake in trying to buy friendship through aid to foreign nations, some of whom "openly proclaim their faith in international communism," says Sen. Lausche (D-Ohio).

Lausche, addressing the Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc. here Tuesday, called for reexamination of the U. S. foreign aid program.

"I sometimes wonder," he said, "whether we are moving forward to a Marxist type of government while Soviet Russia is applauding our spending and our federal government's continued expansions into private enterprise."

Lausche predicted Congress would provide funds for stepped up satellite and missile research. He added, however, that appropriations in the scientific field probably would mean curtailment of spending in other fields.

MYF To Sponsor Pancake Supper

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of the White Oak Church plans to sponsor a pancake supper to raise money for the hospitals and homes of the Methodist Conference. It also plans to hold a special Thanksgiving service No. 24.

These plans were made at a regular meeting in the church basement Sunday night.

Mike Wagner, president conducted the meeting during which the plans were made and a committee appointed to have charge of the sale of pecans this year.

A meeting was scheduled by the program committee to complete the remainder of the conference year.

The devotions were presented by Pat Williams and Bill Kyle. A reading of "The Meaning of the Importance of Our Concern for Others" opened the service and the Scripture reading, a meditation on the Scripture and prayer completed it.

The MYF benediction closed the meeting.

Miss Francis Hicks Is Bride Of Mr. Robert Brumfield Oct. 19

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT BRUMFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hicks, New Martinsburg, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Francis Hicks, 3655 Maple Hill Terrace, Dayton, to Mr. Ronald Brumfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hartsel Brumfield, 415 N. Washington St., Greenfield.

The double - ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elwood Rose in the Ohmer Park Methodist Church, Dayton, on Oct. 19 at 7:30 p. m.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums graced the candle - lit altar. Lighted tapers tied with white satin bows and clusters of mums lined the aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of beige taffeta. The bodice featured a scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves. The empire line was accented with a small bow while a band of self fabric topped the softly pleated skirt. She wore a matching pointed crown of lace, outlined with pearls and highlighted with iridescent sequins and topped with a circular face veil. She carried a white Prayer Book topped with two white orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Jacqueline Uhl, Dayton, was attired in a matching gown in Irish green. Her headband of taffeta, accented with side petals, was topped with a circular veil and she carried bronze mums.

Mr. Tom Hicks, brother of the bride, was Mr. Brumfield's best man. Mr. Kermit Allen, Washington C. H., seated the guests.

Mrs. Hicks chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow pompoms and roses.

Mrs. Brumfield, mother of the groom, wore an aqua knit suit with matching accessories and her corsage was also of yellow pompoms and roses.

The new Mrs. Brumfield is a 1956 graduate of McClain High School, Greenfield, and the Miami-Jacobs Business College in Dayton. She is now employed as a secretary at General Motors Corp., Dayton.

Mr. Brumfield attended McClain High School before joining the United States Army. He is now a paratrooper and is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Among those attending the wedding were the Misses Ruth Ann Brumfield, Carol Hillard and Linda Manley, all of Greenfield; Miss Kathy and Tom Hicks, and Miss Carolyn Smith, all of New Martinsburg.

Jeffersonville Daughters of 1812 Hear Talk on European Travels

Mr. John Wesley Smith, Williamsburg, accompanied Mrs. Smith, who is a member of Major Samuel Myers Chapter of Daughters of 1812, to the meeting Monday afternoon in the Jeffersonville Methodist Church parlors.

Mr. Smith gave an interesting talk on their European travels last summer and showed pictures of Italy, particularly of St. Peter's Cathedral and the Vatican in Rome where they were presented to the Pope.

Mrs. Loren D. Hynes, president, opened the meeting in ritualistic form, assisted by Mrs. Paul Fairley, chaplain. Mrs. Frank Michael led in the Pledge of Allegiance, and Miss Louise Fults playing the accompaniment for the singing of the national anthem.

Mrs. Ervin Miller, chairman of the budget committee, listed the various expense estimates for the coming year and, after discussion by the chairmen of the committees on Mountain Schools, Bacone Indian School, Real Granddaughters, location of 1812 soldiers graves and the American Merchant Marine Library Assn., the budget was accepted.

The American Merchant Marine Library is the only nation-wide association providing exchange of books and magazines amoung the seaman stationed at lighthouses, light ships and ships at sea and the Great Lakes.

Members brought clothing to be sent to Crossnore School by Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, committee chairman.

Miss Golda Baughn gave a talk on national defense, particularly cautioning against buying Christmas cards done by communist artists.

The Misses Helen and Louise Fults were appointed a committee to send Christmas gifts to the small children at Caney Creek School in the mountains of Kentucky, where the people do not have access to stores.

Following Mr. Smith's talk members and their guests were invited to a beautifully appointed tea table, carrying out a Thanksgiving motif, for the serving of refreshments. Mrs. Loren Hynes and Mrs. Harry Rankin poured.

Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. John Boyer and Mrs. Ford Ervin were guests of the chapter. Mrs. Harold Haworth, Wilmington; Mrs. Paul Fairley, Greenfield; and Mrs. Smith, Williamsburg, were out-of-town members present.

Hostesses for this event were Mrs. Ralph Agle, chairman, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Mrs. W. A. Melvin, Miss Golda Baughn, Mrs. John F. Dial, Mrs. John Nobel, Mrs. Ernest Chaney, Mrs. Willard Bitzer, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. Harry Campbell, Mrs. Dean Powell and Mrs. Harry M. Rankin.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Weade, Washington Ave., Jan. 13 at 7:30 p. m.

A peddler's knowledge of vitamins

To sum it up . . . probably zero. The professional people who know about vitamins and nutritional supplements are doctors of medicine and registered pharmacists. The peddler's "knowledge" probably consists of a prepared sales talk which he memorized. Which may or may not give you all the facts. So, don't buy vitamins or nutritional supplements from door-to-door peddlers. Get them from a registered pharmacist who knows what he's selling—and gives you what you pay for.

O'Neill Staff Shuffle Holds Familiar Echo

Observers See Signs Of Governor Moving Toward Election Bid

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill this week completes reorganization of his office staff. The reshuffle pattern has a singularly familiar Statehouse echo.

The last time such a reorganization swept that office, the GOP governor was laying the groundwork for a presidential bid.

Last summer O'Neill shrugged off as groundless reports that his aides took presidential soundings at the National Governors' Conference, an annual event featuring rainbow bridges to the White House.

Recent steps by O'Neill to coordinate administration press and public relations activities, before announcing for re-election, reminded political veterans of similar moves by U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker when he became governor in 1939.

Bricker brought in a number of publicity men during the first of his three terms. After re-election, he centered publicity activities in the highway department with D. O. Taber, now state representative from Gallia County, in charge.

In addition to publicity men in the governor's office and various state departments, highway division engineers' offices had a man for local news contracts.

The governor or top aides in 1943 began holding hush-hush meetings with his publicists in what became known as "Little Cabinet" sessions. They usually met behind closed doors of the Governor's suite in the State Office Building. The suite, long since abandoned for gubernatorial use, now houses offices of the state tax commissioner.

"We weren't told what to write but the governor made it clear he wanted to know about news releases," a conferee recalled.

Although nothing was announced, the "nose-for-news" men soon smelled presidential aspirations. Surmises were confirmed during Bricker's third term when A. A. Hoopingarner, Dover publisher who had replaced Taber, became chief of presidential campaign headquarters late in 1943.

But New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey won the presidential nomination in 1944 and Bricker became his vice presidential running mate in an unsuccessful bid for election.

Hoopingarner, now with GOP state headquarters, is credited with urging publicity co-ordination in O'Neill's office. The governor soon is expected to declare for re-election, a vital step towards any higher political niche.

O'Neill recently summoned more than a dozen publicists and state employes who prepare material for news releases to a "get-acquainted" breakfast in the mansion.

"I wanted to know how many there were and how they are doing," the governor reported. "I think there will be more co-operation between departments. If there is to be an announcement from a department, I should be advised of it."

Working with public information employes, O'Neill said, will be Hal W. Conefry who takes over the new post of press secretary in the governor's office next Monday. Conefry since 1920 has been legislative correspondent for Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Also joining the staff is Paul Tague Jr. as executive secretary. Tague leaves as assistant to Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, assigned to the Utilities Commission, to work for his former boss. He was assistant to O'Neill when the man from Marietta was attorney general and roomed with him.

Frigidity in Women Given Study by Noted Psychiatrist

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Dr. Juliana Day, a psychiatrist for the National Institute of Mental Health.

By DR. JULIANA DAY
(For Jane Eads)

Frigidity in women usually means a partial or complete lack of interest in sexual relations. Some women, although they may desire intimacy, are unable to enjoy it, others may find intimacy repulsive.

Careful gynecological examination rarely reveals any physical disability which might be responsible for frigidity.

Frigidity may be considered as an expression of the fears women have about the sexual experience or of dissatisfaction with some aspect of their marriage relationships. Fears about sex often arise from ignorance.

As a girl is growing up, her curiosity in sexual matters is frequently frowned upon, and she can be most receptive to the prejudices and disgusts of older women concerning menstruation, intimacy and childbirth. The result is that many girls come to believe that sex is somehow both mysterious and bad.

Frequently, frigidity may be overcome if frank discussion between husband and wife is possible. A physician can often help by explaining some of the things these couples do not understand. Clergymen and marriage counselors, as well as physicians, can support couples in these discussions and aid in clarifying and resolving the difficulty.

Occasional cases of frigidity have more deep-seated and stubborn roots. A woman, for instance, may compensate for deep disappointment in her mother by idolizing her father and making him into an unattainable standard for masculine excellence. By this standard she will find her husband inadequate and may therefore be frigid in her relationships with him.

This sort of problem is usually beyond the individual's awareness and generally needs the professional help of a psychiatrist.

Most important, we must realize that—sexually, as in every other way—all women and all marriages are different. The partners of each marriage share a variety of interests, enthusiasms, and difficulties of job, home and children. Mutual sexual satisfaction is only one of the ways in which true fulfillment in marriage is realized.

Cincinnati Policemen Trimming Excess Fat

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's policemen are getting their weight down. Eleven months ago, Chief Stanley R. Schrotel ordered all overweight officers to reduce. At that time, 61 members of the force were carrying too much weight. Tuesday, Col. Robert Klug, head of police personnel, said there now are only 25 overweight.

The launching of space satellites in recent weeks points up the rapidity of change in our way of life.

The tremendous changes within the last 10 years are realized only when one stops to review them.

Television, radar, atomic energy, electronic computers, automation all have been developed for wide spread use within this last decade. It is reasonable to assume that in the next decade changes of even greater magnitude will take place.

The sudden impact of the Soviet satellites symbolizes how important trained manpower is to our national survival today.

Our recent experience shows that there just aren't enough of the dedicated and properly trained men and women who are working in their chosen field. And the demand for good teachers is on the increase.

THIS IS a problem all of us can help solve by doing the following:

1. Encourage capable college students to take more education courses to major in education.
2. Make the profession of teaching one in which a young talented person can make a worthwhile living.
3. Provide adequate schools and facilities.
4. Provide all teachers in our communit with adequate salaries, professional benefits, and security.
5. Provide greater social and professional acceptance of teachers in our community.
6. Sponsor scholarships and fellowships to make it possible for persons of ability to prepare themselves for teaching.

If these things are done, we shall have better educational programs because we shall be increasing our supply of capable and dedicated teachers. It can be done only through cooperation.

Ohio Crop Harvest Estimates Outlined

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Agriculture, in a semi-annual report issued Tuesday, gave these estimated yields of important crops in Ohio.

Soybeans — 23 bushels an acre, producing 32,292,000 bushels.

Almanac Says Winter To Be Real Doozy

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — For those who turn to famed Baer's Almanac for tips on weather, well-being and the abundant life generally, word went out today that:

Much of the United States will have a doozy of a winter from January to late March, with "major" cold waves and frequent storms.

By next Thanksgiving, turkeys, presliced to obviate carving, may be sold through vending machines.

And if you eat sausage on New Year's Day you will be full of vigor all year long.

That last item is from the Treasury of Pennsylvania Dutch sayings. Baer's Almanac, publishing its 133rd edition, richly abounds in such maxims.

Back in the 1890s, the almanac says, it compiled among the Pennsylvania Dutch certain information about moon phases, and that information is considered as sound now as it ever was. Samples: Make wine in the dark of the moon. Marry in the light of the moon. Hair should be cut on the first Friday after the new moon.

It takes POWER to reach the goal

It is predicted Ohio will be the Number One industrial state by 1967.

Ohio's electric companies share this optimism. They'll "run interference" for this "power play" by continuing to provide plenty of low-cost electricity to meet additional requirements. That's very important in expanding industry and increasing jobs in Ohio.

During the last ten years Ohio's electric companies have invested more than one billion dollars in new facilities. They have doubled the total available power. They expect to double it again in the next decade.

No matter how fast Ohio grows, its electric companies must grow even faster to keep our power supply a step ahead. These companies will meet this goal — paying their own way.

O'Neill Staff Shuffle Holds Familiar Echo

Observers See Signs Of Governor Moving Toward Election Bid

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill this week completes reorganization of his office staff. The reshuffle pattern has a singularly familiar Statehouse echo.

The last time such a reorganization swept that office, the GOP governor was laying the groundwork for a presidential bid.

Last summer O'Neill shrugged off as groundless reports that his aides took presidential soundings at the National Governors' Conference, an annual event featuring rainbow bridges to the White House.

Recent steps by O'Neill to coordinate administration press and public relations activities, before announcing for re-election, reminded political veterans of similar moves by U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker when he became governor in 1939.

Bricker brought in a number of publicity men during the first of his three terms. After re-election, he centered publicity activities in the highway department with D. O. Taber, now state representative from Gallia County, in charge.

In addition to publicity men in the governor's office and various state departments, highway division engineers' offices had a man for local news contracts.

The governor or top aides in 1943 began holding hush-hush meetings with his publicists in what became known as "Little Cabinet" sessions. They usually met behind closed doors of the Governor's suite in the State Office Building. The suite, long since abandoned for gubernatorial use, now houses offices of the state tax commissioner.

"We weren't told what to write but the governor made it clear he wanted to know about news releases," a conferee recalled.

Although nothing was announced, the "nose-for-news" men soon smelled presidential aspirations. Surmises were confirmed during Bricker's third term when A. A. Hoopingarner, Dover publisher who had replaced Taber, became chief of presidential campaign headquarters late in 1943.

But New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey won the presidential nomination in 1944 and Bricker became his vice presidential running mate in an unsuccessful bid for election.

Hoopingarner, now with GOP state headquarters, is credited with urging publicity co-ordination in O'Neill's office. The governor soon is expected to declare for re-election, a vital step towards any higher political niche.

O'Neill recently summoned more than a dozen publicists and state employes who prepare material for news releases to a "get-acquainted" breakfast in the mansion.

"I wanted to know how many there were and how they are doing," the governor reported. "I think there will be more co-operation between departments. If there is to be an announcement from a department, I should be advised of it."

Working with public information employes, O'Neill said, will be Hal W. Conefry who takes over the new post of press secretary in the governor's office next Monday. Conefry since 1920 has been legislative correspondent for Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Also joining the staff is Paul Tague Jr. as executive secretary. Tague leaves as assistant to Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, assigned to the Utilities Commission, to work for his former boss. He was assistant to O'Neill when the man from Marietta was attorney general and roomed with him.

Frigidity in Women Given Study by Noted Psychiatrist

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Dr. Juliana Day, a psychiatrist for the National Institute of Mental Health.

By DR. JULIANA DAY
(For Jane Eads)

Frigidity in women usually means a partial or complete lack of interest in sexual relations. Some women, although they may desire intimacy, are unable to enjoy it, others may find intimacy repulsive.

Careful gynecological examination rarely reveals any physical disability which might be responsible for frigidity.

Frigidity may be considered as an expression of the fears women have about the sexual experience or of dissatisfaction with some aspect of their marriage relationships. Fears about sex often arise from ignorance.

As a girl is growing up, her curiosity in sexual matters is frequently frowned upon, and she can be most receptive to the prejudices and disgusts of older women concerning menstruation, intimacy and childbirth. The result is that many girls come to believe that sex is somehow both mysterious and bad.

Frequently, frigidity may be overcome if frank discussion between husband and wife is possible. A physician can often help by explaining some of the things these couples do not understand. Clergymen and marriage counselors, as well as physicians, can support couples in these discussions and aid in clarifying and resolving the difficulty.

Occasional cases of frigidity have more deep-seated and stubborn roots. A woman, for instance, may compensate for deep disappointment in her mother by idolizing her father and making him into an unattainable standard for masculine excellence. By this standard she will find her husband inadequate and may therefore be frigid in her relationships with him.

This sort of problem is usually beyond the individual's awareness and generally needs the professional help of a psychiatrist.

Most important, we must realize that—sexually, as in every other way—all women and all marriages are different. The partners of each marriage share a variety of interests, enthusiasms, and difficulties of job, home and children. Mutual sexual satisfaction is only one of the ways in which true fulfillment in marriage is realized.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's policemen are getting their weight down. Eleven months ago, Chief Stanley R. Schrotel ordered all overweight officers to reduce. At that time, 61 members of the force were carrying too much weight. Tuesday, Col. Robert Klug, head of police personnel, said there now are only 25 overweight.

Ways To Provide a Better Education

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of articles on various phases of education which will appear daily in connection with American Education Week. They were prepared at the request of the City Teacher Assn.

The launching of space satellites in recent weeks points up the rapidity of change in our way of life.

The tremendous changes within the last 10 years are realized only when one stops to review them.

Television, radar, atomic energy, electronic computers, automation all have been developed for widespread use within this last decade. It is reasonable to assume that in the next decade changes of even greater magnitude will take place.

The sudden impact of the Soviet satellites symbolizes how important trained manpower is to our national survival today.

'No Kid Really Wants To Be Bad'

Boys' Industrial School Chief Pleads For Public Interest in Youth Problem

A strong appeal for more public interest and aid toward providing more and better-equipped institutions to deal with the youth class which has become a serious juvenile delinquency problem in Ohio was made to Rotarians and their guests Tuesday.

The speaker was T. Lyston Fultz, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster, a state institution. His subject was "Protecting Our Investment in Youth."

Fultz is a veteran of five years' service in World War II during which he was promoted to the rank of major. He is at present an active lieutenant colonel in the Ohio National Guard and was an adjutant general in the 37th Infantry Division of the ONG while serving as secretary of the Armed Forces Information School at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. from 1945 to 1947.

The speaker was presented by Carroll Halliday, a fraternity brother of Col. Fultz at Ohio University at Athens. Another fraternity brother present as a guest was G. B. Vance, identified with the Washington High School teaching staff.

• • •

IN OPENING his remarks Col. Fultz paid a high compliment to Col. Harold Hays, formerly of this city, who several years ago was head of the BIS and under whom, the speaker said, he had obtained much of his training for the work in which he is now engaged. The Rev. Richard J. Father Connelly also present at this meeting, was chaplain at the BIS for a time while Fultz was in service there.

"I intend to keep following the pattern set by Col. Hays and I believe that I shall be pursuing a successful course if I can follow in his footsteps," the speaker said. "He did much for many misguided boys while he was head of our school."

"When you people representing the public, show a deeper interest in all our young people, youth will have less chance of encountering serious trouble," the speaker stated.

He asserted that in his opinion, a far greater number of people must be dedicated to the idea of making more sacrifice to help youngsters. "No kid really wants to be bad," he declared.

That the public and taxpayers are responsible for not providing more ample facilities to help most young people who get into trouble, was pointed out by the speaker who said "Ohio needs to move up and forward in human relationship if we are to put Christian teachings into action."

• • •

TO SUPPLEMENT his statement with facts, Fultz pointed to many inadequacies in the institution he heads. There are more than 1,000 boys there, while to do a better job in aiding them toward good citizenship, there should not be over 500. "There is no easy cure-all for juvenile delinquency," he asserted, "and no single treatment will do the work. Only the public is in position to do something about this problem."

He asked questions as to how much interest in boys had been shown by average individual citizens of every community; how often adults had expressed lack of respect for authority, in the presence of children who regarded those making such statements as influential citizens worthy of following; how seldom, if any of those present ever had paid any attention to a youngster he knew was being neglected.

The speaker said that at the Boys Industrial School 60 percent of the boys sent there were from broken homes, 25 per cent were below normal intelligence, 7 per cent needed state hospital attention and 8 per cent possessed an above normal IQ. Of the boys now at the BIS, at least 15 had been in court before they were 8 years of age and 11 had been in court 10 or more times before being received at that institution. Less than 6 per cent of the boys there had never had any working relationship with any church or Sunday School.

"Remember," the speaker said, "these youngsters between the ages of 10 and 18 can be helped if there are more and better places to send them; also remember these boys are coming back to you, into your communities. What will you do to help with this problem we face?"

During the club session John Elcessor presented four student guests from Washington High School. They were Dale Fent, Ronnie Dowler, Kenny Evans and Raney Foster.

• • •

PRESIDENT Robert Haigler read a letter from C. E. Rhoad, in Iran, which told Rhoad's trips to various Rotary meetings in Pakistan where he had been called upon to tell about the activities of his home club in Washington C. H.

Visitors at Tuesday's Rotary session, held at the Country Club, were the Rev. Don Patterson with Robert Lisk, Father Connelly with Joe Peters, G. B. Vance with Carroll Halliday, Judge Robert Brubaker with Edmond Woodmansee and John Todd with Dr. B. V. Scott.

Visiting Rotarians were Orville Badger of Framingham, Mass.; Dr. Felson of Greenfield; George Tanner and William Endres of Mt. Sterling.

Ohio Attorney General Gives New Rulings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William Saxbe today ruled that dependents granted pensions from fire and policemen's relief and pension funds between Sept. 25, 1947, and Sept. 3, 1957, are entitled to an increase in pensions.

In the opinion, requested by State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Saxbe said pensions granted dependents of firemen and policemen are increased by a House bill of the 102nd General Assembly.

Saxbe's ruling enables dependents to collect the full amount provided by the act, effective Sept. 13, 1957, even though their pensions were granted while a lower amount was in effect.

In a ruling Tuesday, Saxbe said a person cannot serve at the same time as a member of the library board of trustees of a school district and as a member of the board of education. The board of education appoints library trustees.

Saxbe said a bill passed in the 102nd General Assembly provides that an employe of the board of education making appointments to the library board is ineligible to serve as a member of both.

U. S. Industrial Activity Dip Now Widening

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Slowly but surely the slight dip in industrial activity which began last spring is widening out today—even as the stock market foretold.

It shows in figures from the steel and oil industries, in textile output cutbacks and weak prices, in factory employment, and even is starting to tinge the white collar worker's outlook.

Consumers are doing their share. They continue to spend as much or more for goods and services. But many manufacturers of civilian goods rather than defense items are finding they must produce fewer units if they are to keep their stocks from rising. Higher prices and more use of services color the consumer spending totals.

The economy is still riding high and no great drop is feared. But every month new segments of the economy enter into the current breather.

Steel production this week is lower than at any time since early August 1956, when it was affected by the summer strike. Even products long in short supply, like structural steel, can now be had quickly from the mills. An steel masters are saying they look for little improvement the rest of this year or early in the next, unless their auto customers order better.

The oil industry is being warned that a rough year may be ahead. Demand still tops last year but not by the margin expected, and production is running ahead of consumption. Gasoline price cuts have been made recently in scattered sections of the nation.

At the American Petroleum Institute meeting in Chicago oilmen are being warned of the price weakness which could spread to crude oil itself unless production is tightly curbed.

They also are being told that the Russians have world trade weapons as well as sputniks. API President Frank Porter says that the Iron Curtain countries have boosted output of oil 40 per cent in two years and that vast untapped resources may lie within their borders.

Troubles of the overcrowded textile industry have brought some new price weakness in some lines. To hold down rising stocks several of the bigger textile firms are planning an eight day shutdown, distributed between the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Food consumption continues to increase. But store customers are becoming increasingly resistant to and restive under advancing prices.

One of the most discussed shortages of recent years is that of skilled technicians and such white collar workers as secretaries. The supply is fairly tight. But here and there in the nation workers are reporting it isn't as easy now as formerly to switch jobs.

Total employment remains near a peak. In October it rose again, but this time chiefly because of an unexpected demand for farm workers. The ranks of factory workers grew slimmer.

"I intend to keep following the pattern set by Col. Hays and I believe that I shall be pursuing a successful course if I can follow in his footsteps," the speaker said. "He did much for many misguided boys while he was head of our school."

"When you people representing the public, show a deeper interest in all our young people, youth will have less chance of encountering serious trouble," the speaker stated.

He asserted that in his opinion, a far greater number of people must be dedicated to the idea of making more sacrifice to help youngsters. "No kid really wants to be bad," he declared.

That the public and taxpayers are responsible for not providing more ample facilities to help most young people who get into trouble, was pointed out by the speaker who said "Ohio needs to move up and forward in human relationship if we are to put Christian teachings into action."

TO SUPPLEMENT his statement with facts, Fultz pointed to many inadequacies in the institution he heads. There are more than 1,000 boys there, while to do a better job in aiding them toward good citizenship, there should not be over 500. "There is no easy cure-all for juvenile delinquency," he asserted, "and no single treatment will do the work. Only the public is in position to do something about this problem."

He asked questions as to how much interest in boys had been shown by average individual citizens of every community; how often adults had expressed lack of respect for authority, in the presence of children who regarded those making such statements as influential citizens worthy of following; how seldom, if any of those present ever had paid any attention to a youngster he knew was being neglected.

The speaker said that at the Boys Industrial School 60 percent of the boys sent there were from broken homes, 25 per cent were below normal intelligence, 7 per cent needed state hospital attention and 8 per cent possessed an above normal IQ. Of the boys now at the BIS, at least 15 had been in court before they were 8 years of age and 11 had been in court 10 or more times before being received at that institution. Less than 6 per cent of the boys there had never had any working relationship with any church or Sunday School.

"Remember," the speaker said, "these youngsters between the ages of 10 and 18 can be helped if there are more and better places to send them; also remember, these boys are coming back to you, into your communities. What will you do to help with this problem we face?"

During the club session John Elcessor presented four student guests from Washington High School. They were Dale Fent, Ronnie Dowler, Kenny Evans and Raney Foster.

U. S. Industrial Activity Dip Now Widening

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Slowly but surely the slight dip in industrial activity which began last spring is widening out today—even as the stock market foretold.

It shows in figures from the steel and oil industries, in textile output cutbacks and weak prices in factory employment, and even is starting to tinge the white collar worker's outlook.

Consumers are doing their share. They continue to spend as much or more for goods and services. But many manufacturers of civilian goods rather than defense items are finding they must produce fewer units if they are to keep their stocks from rising. Higher prices and more use of services color the consumer spending totals.

The economy is still riding high and no great drop is feared. But every month new segments of the economy enter into the current breather.

Steel production this week is lower than at any time since early August 1956, when it was affected by the summer strike. Even products long in short supply, like structural steel, can now be had quickly from the mills. An steel masters are saying they look for little improvement the rest of this year or early in the next, unless their auto customers order better.

The oil industry is being warned that a rough year may be ahead. Demand still tops last year but not by the margin expected, and production is running ahead of consumption. Gasoline price cuts have been made recently in scattered sections of the nation.

At the American Petroleum Institute meeting in Chicago oilmen are being warned of the price weakness which could spread to crude oil itself unless production is tightly curbed.

They also are being told that the Russians have world trade weapons as well as sputniks. API President Frank Porter says that the Iron Curtain countries have boosted output of oil 40 per cent in two years and that vast untapped resources may lie within their borders.

Troubles of the overcrowded textile industry have brought some new price weakness in some lines. To hold down rising stocks several of the bigger textile firms are planning an eight day shutdown, distributed between the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Food consumption continues to increase. But store customers are becoming increasingly resistant to and restive under advancing prices.

One of the most discussed shortages of recent years is that of skilled technicians and such white collar workers as secretaries. The supply is fairly tight. But here and there in the nation workers are reporting it isn't as easy now as formerly to switch jobs.

Total employment remains near a peak. In October it rose again, but this time chiefly because of an unexpected demand for farm workers. The ranks of factory workers grew slimmer.

Ohio Attorney General Gives New Rulings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William Saxbe today ruled that dependents granted pensions from fire and policemen's relief and pension funds between Sept. 25, 1947, and Sept. 3, 1957, are entitled to an increase in pensions.

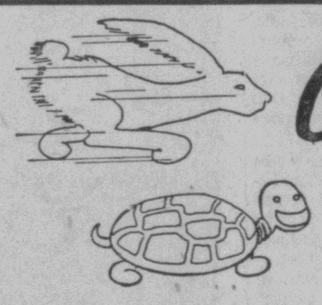

In the opinion, requested by State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Saxbe said pensions granted dependents of firemen and policemen are increased by a House bill of the 102nd General Assembly.

Saxbe's ruling enables dependents to collect the full amount provided by the act, effective Sept. 13, 1957, even though their pensions were granted while a lower amount was in effect.

In a ruling Tuesday, Saxbe said a person cannot serve at the same time as a member of the library board of trustees of a school district and as a member of the board of education. The board of education appoints library trustees.

Saxbe said a bill passed in the 102nd General Assembly provides that an employe of the board of education making appointments to the library board is ineligible to serve as a member of both.

Three Injured In 4 Accidents Here Tuesday

Most Serious Crash Occurs on North St.; One Is in County

Three injuries were among the results of four auto accidents reported to officers in the city and county Tuesday.

Admitted to Memorial Hospital for treatment of a neck injury sustained in an accident about 4:30 p. m. was Mrs. A. L. Sparger, 59, of Route 70 north.

Treated and released from the hospital's emergency room were Mrs. Walter Stone, 35, and Mrs. Arthur Finders, 66, both of Columbus, who sustained cuts and bruises in another accident about 1:45 p. m.

Mrs. Sparger was a passenger in her own auto, being driven by Garnet Runnels, 39, of 905 S. North St., when it was hit in the rear by a car driven by Dewey A. Bumgarner, 59, of Route 70, north. Bumgarner told police his car had to stop short for a truck on N. North St. north of Eastern Ave. before it was hit from behind by Mrs. Sparger's car.

THE COLUMBUS women were in a northbound car on Route 35 when it grazed the front of a truck driven by Clare Norton Yeazel, 70, of Route 753, and rolled over into a ditch.

Yeazel, who was coming out of Bogus Rd. at the time, was fined $20 and costs in Municipal Court Wednesday after he pleaded guilty to failure to yield the right of way. His truck was slightly damaged but the frame and the body of the other car — which had been driven just 910 miles — were wrecked.

STEEL TUBING flew off a Florida truckdriver's rig about 6 p. m. Tuesday and did damage to another truck and a parked car on Columbus Ave. near Eavey's Super Market.

Vernon B. Wood, 31, of Lakeland, Fla., told police he came to a short stop behind a truck driven by Flowwer A. Fleming, 47, of Allons, Tenn., and that his steel load broke loose and slid off.

The tubing ripped the tarpauline on the Fleming truck and smashed three crates of apples. It also smashed a fender on a car owned by Leo F. Bell, 37, of 1145 Rawlings St., parked at the side of the street.

A used car at the Ralph Hickman, Inc., lot, 205 W. Market St., rolled free about noon Tuesday and smashed into the door of a parked truck owned by Wendell G. Elliott, 22, of Main St., Bloomingburg.

DIAGONAL PARKING--Two women were slightly injured about 1:45 p. m. Tuesday when this car grazed the front end of a pickup truck and rolled over on Route 35, south, at Bogus Rd. Driver of the truck, Clare Norton Yeazel, 71, of Route 753, was coming out of Bogus Rd., when the mishap occured. He was fined $20 and costs after he pleaded guilty in Municipal Court to a charge of failure to yield the right of way. (Record-Herald photo)

Salvation Army Pick-up Schedule Set Up for WCH

If you have any used, but usable, clothing, household furnishings or furniture, that you don't need, you can put it to good service with a letter or postcard to the Salvation Army headquarters in Columbus, 594 S. High St.

Paris Garrett, who has been driving the Salvation Army truck here from Columbus every Thursday for many months to pick up donations of these things, said this schedule will continue indefinitely, but that it would be a big help if people will let him know in advance where to stop.

This week and next, Garrett said, the truck will make the pick-up rounds in Washington C. H. on three days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday—and then return to the old schedule of once-a-week on Thursdays.

The things picked up here—in fact throughout this Salvation Army district—are mended and freshened up at the Salvation Army shop in Columbus and given to people in distress. Many of these things have been brought to Fayette County to help families faced with emergencies after such disasters as fires.

Plans Completed For Charity Ball

Herkie Coe's band will provide the music for the third annual Elks Charity Ball to be held Nov. 16 in the American Legion Hall. Andre Metais, chairman of the dance committee said that dancing will be held from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m.

All proceeds from the dance will go into the Elks permanent dental fund which is for children here. With somewhat limited funds available in the past it has been necessary to assist only those who showed greatest need for help. The program is administered by the county Health Department nurse and schools.

The committee in charge of the affair this year is under the chairmanship of Andre Metais, assisted by Charles Funk, Norman Boop, Don Bowers, Leo Fisher and Sam Douds.

Final arrangements for the ba were made by the committee at its meeting Tuesday night. The chairman reported that "very few of the approximately tickets mailed out in advance have been returned.

The dance is not limited to Elks.

Jaycees Study Plan For War Memorial

The Washington C. H. Jaycees are considering building a memorial to local war heroes of World War II.

A Jaycee committee, under the direction of Jaycee Jack Lions, is studying the possibilities of such a project, which would be conducted as the next activity of the group's civic improvement branch.

Plans for the tentatively-projected activity were discussed at a Jaycee meeting in the Rendezvous Room restaurant Monday night. William Williams, Jaycee president, conducted the session.

Guests at the meeting were young businessmen from Sabina, who are asking the aid of the Washington C. H. group in forming a Jaycee chapter there. Members answered questions about the organization, and Jaycee Omar (Jim) Schwart spoke on the Jaycee creed.

Three Drivers Fined In Municipal Court

Drivers pleaded guilty to speeding and to failure to yield right of way in a quiet Municipal Court session Wednesday.

Fined $20 and costs on a failure to yield charge was John Edgar Wood, 31, of 628 Delaware St. Otis Taylor, 71, of Route 2, Greenfield, was fined $10 and costs, for speeding, and Velma Ruth Forsyth, 35, Good Hope - Austin Rd., was fined $5 and costs on the same charge.

Forfeiting bond for non-appearance on traffic counts were: Isaac Rhoads, 65, Bloomingburg, failure to yield, $25; and Walter Ralph Beechler, 53, Bainbridge, speeding, $20.

Official Vote Count Complete

Minor Changes In Final Tally

The Fayette County Board of Elections completed its official count of Nov. 5 returns Tuesday night, with the only changes in totals resulting from less than a dozen votes from overlapping school districts which vote on county school issues and candidates.

There were no changes in totals for city, township and state issues and candidates.

Seven votes from Highland, Madison and Ross areas privileged to vote on Fayette County school matters gave the following official totals:

Fayette County Board of Education: Hoppes, 1,712; Avey, 1,630; Lightle, 1,605; Allen, 1,211; Schlichter, 1,208; Babb, 1,167;

Miami Trace Board of Education: Perrill, 1,590; Owens, 1,563; Hagler, 1,091; Agle, 1,024.

The Miami Trace levy for school purpose picked up two votes from the overlapping districts, making the final count 1,642 for the levy and 1,310 against.

School Attendance Near Normal Again

Only three schools in the county reported absenteeism above normal of 10 per cent Wednesday and all schools had more students attending Wednesday than Tuesday.

The Jeffersonville and Bookwalter elementary schools each reported 14 per cent absenteeism Wednesday. Tuesday both reported 16 per cent out.

Best gain in attendance was in the Marion school, which reported 14.9 per cent of its students in class Wednesday. Tuesday the school had 19 per cent of its students out.

Only one teacher was out with flu, according to Miami Trace Superintendent Walter W. Boyer. Mrs. Mildred Hall, Bookwalter was absent, but a substitute teacher was conducting her class.

All city schools were well below the 10 per cent normal absenteeism, City Superintendent W. A. Smith said. He also reported that none of his teachers are influenza victims at this time.

Plans Completed For Charity Ball

Herkie Coe's band will provide the music for the third annual Elks Charity Ball to be held Nov. 16 in the American Legion Hall. Andre Metais, chairman of the dance committee said that dancing will be held from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m.

All proceeds from the dance will go into the Elks permanent dental fund which is for children here. With somewhat limited funds available in the past it has been necessary to assist orly those who showed greatest need for help. The program is administered by the county Health Department nurse and schools.

The committee in charge of the affair this year is under the chairmanship of Andre Metais, assisted by Charles Funk, Norman Boop, Don Bowers, Leo Fisher and Sam Douds.

Final arrangements for the ba were made by the committee at its meeting Tuesday night. The chairman reported that "very few of the approximately tickets mailed out in advance have been returned.

The dance is not limited to Elks.

Jaycees Study Plan For War Memorial

The Washington C. H. Jaycees are considering building a memorial to local war heroes of World War II.

A Jaycee committee, under the direction of Jaycee Jack Lions, is studying the possibilities of such a project, which would be conducted as the next activity of the group's civic improvement branch.

Plans for the tentatively-projected activity were discussed at a Jaycee meeting in the Rendezvous Room restaurant Monday night. William Williams, Jaycee president, conducted the session.

Guests at the meeting were young businessmen from Sabina, who are asking the aid of the Washington C. H. group in forming a Jaycee chapter there. Members answered questions about the organization, and Jaycee Omar (Jim) Schwart spoke on the Jaycee creed.

School Attendance Near Normal Again

Only three schools in the county reported absenteeism above normal of 10 per cent Wednesday and all schools had more students attending Wednesday than Tuesday

The Jeffersonville and Bookwalter elementary schools each reported 14 per cent absenteeism Wednesday. Tuesday both reported 16 per cent out.

Best gain in attendance was in the Marion school, which reported 14.9 per cent of its students in class Wednesday. Tuesday the school had 19 per cent of its students out.

Only one teacher was out with flu, according to Miami Trace Superintendent Walter W. Boyer. Mrs. Mildred Hall, Bookwalter was absent, but a substitute teacher was conducting her class.

All city schools were well below the 10 per cent normal absenteeism, City Superintendent W. A. Smith said. He also reported that none of his teachers are influenza victims at this time.

MODERN BUSINESS BUILDING SELLS AT 2:00 P. M.

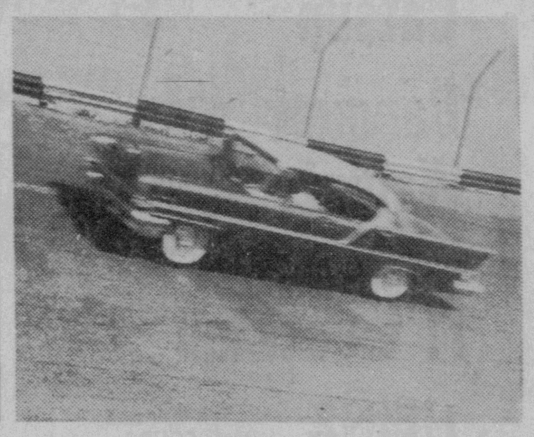

Exceptionally well located modern business building containing 9,000 sq. ft. of floor space. The front part of the building is 50x80 and the back part of the building is 50x100. This building was built about ten years ago by C. A. Dabe and Sons and only the best of materials and labor were used in its construction. The super-structure is steel, the front brick and plate glass and the remaining walls concrete block. Ten large plate glass windows; entire building exceptionally well lighted; concrete floors throughout; gas heated with suspended type heaters; adequately wired; 220-electric service; ample toilet facilities; partitioned office space; partition separating the front half of the building from the back half; fluorescent lights; and many other desirable features. Building is in excellent condition throughout. Large lot with 200-ft. of frontage on the highway. Plenty of off-street parking at the front, both sides and rear. Existing partitions in the building can be removed since they are not weight bearing.
This building and location lends itself for any type of retail business including super-market, bowling alley, skating rink, as well as any type of light industrial use. Replacement costs of this practically new building on today's market is approximately $60,000.00. For the benefit of the investment type buyer, we know of at least three prospective tenants who are interested in leasing the building on a long-term basis.
INSPECTION permitted any time prior to sale. For further information, contact The Bailey-Murphy-Darbyshire Co., Wilmington, Ohio, or Walter Stackhouse, Sabina, Ohio, phone 3631.

4 Teams Can Wrap Up Bowl Bids with Wins Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The college football season reaches its most frenzied pitch next Saturday when no fewer than four teams can wrap up bowl bids.

Texas A&M, Ohio State, Duke and Oregon, could join Oklahoma, which has cemented its berth in the Orange Bowl and "relaxes" against Notre Dame before a nationwide television audience.

The Sooners, who beat Missouri 39-14 last Saturday, will be heavily favored against the Irish. Notre Dame, showing the effects of a murderous schedule, dropped a 34-6 decision to Michigan State.

As for the bowl situation, here is how it shapes up:

Rose—Ohio State is the Big Ten favorite. The Buckeyes and defending champion Iowa go at it this week, and an Ohio State victory would end it. Iowa is ineligible. Michigan State is the only other team with a chance. The Spartans have to beat Minnesota Saturday, and hope Ohio State loses its last two games.

On the other end, Oregon, despite a staggering 13-6 loss to Washington last week, still is in the most favorable position in the Pacific Coast Conference. The Ducks need only one more victory to clinch a tie for the championship and their opponent this week, Southern California, has won just one game.

Cotton—Texas A&M, No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, has only Rice standing in its way. Rice, although it scored a 13-7 upset over Arkansas Saturday, doesn't appear ready to cope with Bear Bryant's men.

The second team in the Cotton Bowl usually is the second-place outfit in the Southeastern conference. Last year, however Syracuse was plucked.

Sugar—The Southeastern Conference champion traditionally acts as host. But Auburn, which is rolling along in first place and undefeated, is ineligible for postseason play this year.

If Mississippi can get by Tennessee this week, Ol' Miss probably will cement second place and wind up in the Sugar Bowl, with either Tennessee or Vanderbilt—whichever wins their game Nov. 30—going to the Cotton Bowl.

Orange—Oklahoma already has one spot taken care of. The Atlantic Coast Conference supplies the other outfit and all Duke has to do to win the title is beat Clemson this week, or—failing that—North Carolina next week. The Blue Devils' tied Navy 6-6 last week.

Southwestern Ohio Teachers Hold Parley

CINCINNATI (AP)— Southwestern Ohio educators are not in agreement over whether there should be greater selectivity in admitting high school graduates to colleges.

The problem, stemming largely from overcrowded colleges, was discussed here Tuesday at a regional meeting of the Governor's Commission on Education beyond the High School with educators from this section of the state.

Although the law requires state colleges to accept all high school graduates, Dr. John D. Millett, president of Miami University, said Miami will "screen" applicants for admission next fall because the school does not have housing facilities to handle all prospective students.

Dr. Millett said admission to Miami will be based on high school grades, college aptitude tests and recommendations of high school counsellors.

"We are not going to meet the basic problem by becoming more selective in our colleges," he said. "There's also a problem of quantity. Along with increased numbers, there will be an increasing thirs for higher education that must be satisfied.

"Unless present colleges and universities in the state can find ways to meet this demand, new courses might be sought by the citizens of the state."

Establishment of branch schools of state universities and colleges and creation of community colleges are being considered by the commission as possible way to solve the problem."

OSU Panel Tells Big Ten: Be Realistic about Sports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The time has come for Big Ten colleges to scrap their long-held policies on amateurism and admit that amateurism can no longer work in college athletics, a committee of Ohio State University faculty members says.

Western Conference schools, the committee said Tuesday night, must take a "hard and realistic look at this situation and be prepared to accept some realities of the modern age."

The seven-man committee issued a 39-page report, some 17 months in preparation, to the group's parent body, the 78-member Faculty Council. The council in turn makes recommendations to the university administration.

In its report, the committee said the concept of amateurism has changed because of social and form is marketable in our socio-economic developments. Moreover, the report said, "skill in any form is marketable in our society."

As a result of those two circumstances, the committee report said, "we should realize that it is no longer shameful not to be an amateur and that a college athlete can be a gentleman and scholar and at the same time receive aid because of his athletic activity."

The report continued: "College sports as we know it here is a $2 million a year enterprise. Whether we like it or not, it is foolish to expect that the program can continue at the level without letting the athlete in for some portion of the gain, either as an inducement to come, or as aid to him as a resident student."

Colleges are only pretending, the report said, "when we try to claim that college athletics are strictly amateur when actually many of them are not."

"The committee is of the opinion that it is no longer possible or reasonable to conduct college sports at the conference level, where we play them, on an amateur basis," the report said. "And to labor through a maze of hypocritical statements, tongue - in - cheek cynicism, and an occasional instance of outright deception, is far more destructive to the welfare of the student than to admit freely that amateurism is no longer a workable concept for college athletics."

The committee recommended that the director of athletics devise a "workable plan" for financial aid to athletes and either minimize or abolish the job program for athletes.

Athletic participation—"It must be realized by the faculty as a whole that participation in athletics is in itself a worth-while experience. It has much to recommend it, and most athletes are willing to make reasonable sacrifices for the privilege of participating."

Expenditures—"The committee notes what seems to be extravagant expenditures in connection with (Ohio State's) 1955 Rose Bowl trip and other entertainments which are of doubtful value to the university." The report did not elaborate.

De-emphasis — "The committee believes we would find insufficient support to warrant making any proposals to major de-emphasis."

Members of the seven-man committee are James F. Fullington of the English Department, chairman; and professors Delbert Oberteuffer, John B. Brown, Alfred B. Garrett, James B. McCoy, Harvey V. Moyer and John N. Cooper.

The seven-man committee issued a 39-page report, some 17 months in preparation, to the group's parent body, the 78-member Faculty Council. The council in turn makes recommendations to the university administration.

In its report, the committee said the concept of amateurism has changed because of social and form is marketable in our socie c onomic developments. M o r e over, the report said, "skill in any form is marketable in our society."

As a result of those two circumstances, the committee report said, "we should realize that it is no longer shameful not to be an amateur and that a college athlete can be a gentleman and scholar and at the same time receive aid because of his athletic activity."

The report continued: "College sports as we know it here is a $2 million a year enterprise. Whether we like it or not, it is foolish to expect that the program can continue at the level without letting the athlete in for some portion of the gain, either as an inducement to come, or as aid to him as a resident student."

Colleges are only pretending, the report said, "when we try to claim that college athletics are strictly amateur when actually many of them are not."

"The committee is of the opinion that it is no longer possible or reasonable to conduct college sports at the conference level, where we play them, on an amateur basis," the report said. "And to labor through a maze of hypocritical statements, tongue - in - cheek cynicism, and an occasional instance of outright deception, is far more destructive to the welfare of the student than to admit freely that amateurism is no longer a workable concept for college athletics."

The committee recommended that the director of athletics devise a "workable plan" for financial aid to athletes and either minimize or abolish the job program for athletes.

The report covered a variety of subjects dealing with college athletics. Some other comments and recommendations include:

Athletic participation—"It must be realized by the faculty as a whole that participation in athletics is in itself a worth-while experience. It has much to recommend it, and most athletes are willing to make reasonable sacrifices for the privilege of participating."

Expenditures—"The committee notes what seems to be extravagant expenditures in connection with (Ohio State's) 1955 Rose Bowl trip and other entertainments which are of doubtful value to the university." The report did not elaborate.

De-emphasis — "The committee believes we would find insufficient support to warrant making any proposals to major de-emphasis."

The Legs are Pretty—For a Girl, That Is

"I'll admit she does have beautiful legs," said Mrs. Thompson.

"Yeh," Pat commented. "For a girl."

AP Guesspert Picks Buckeyes To Trip Iowa

Texas A&M, Oklahoma Also Given Nod To Continue Winning

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Texas A&M over Rice: Bear Bryant's Aggies are No. 1 in the nation. Rice is only second best in the Southwest Conference.

Oklahoma over Notre Dame: In belief that the Sooners have recovered from their midseason siesta. You can see for yourself on your TV screen.

Ohio State over Iowa: In the past 10 years the home team always has won in this crucial series. The Buckeyes do the entertaining this time and hope to clinch the Rose Bowl bid.

Michigan State over Minnesota: This could be closer than it looks if the Spartans spend too much time remembering their Notre Dame victory and if Bobby Cox is back to normal.

Army over Tulane: Bob Anderson to do some more galloping. The game has been switched to West Point.

Duke over Clemson: Clemson has Harvey White but Duke has too much of everything else.

Oregon over Southern California: By about a touchdown.

FRIDAY

Miami over Maryland (N)

SATURDAY

EAST: Princeton over Yale, Pennsylvania over Columbia; Dartmouth over Cornell, Boston College over Marquette, Brown over Harvard, Syracuse over Colgate, Penn State over Holy Cross.

SOUTH: Georgia Tech over Alabama; Navy over George Washington, Florida over Vanderbilt, Furman over Chattanooga, Kentucky over Xavier, North Carolina State over Virginia Tech, Virginia over South Carolina, West Virginia over Wake Forest, William & Mary over Rutgers, Mississippi Southern over Florida State, Louisiana State over Mississippi State, VMI over The Citadel.

MIDWEST: Detroit over Quantico Marines, Iowa State over South Dakota, Oklahoma State over Kansas, Missouri over Kansas State, Colorado over Nebraska, Purdue over Northwestern, Cincinnati over Tulsa, Houston over Wichita, West Texas State over Drake, Wisconsin over Illinois, Michigan over Indiana.

FAR WEST: California over Washington, Denver over Utah State, Montana over Colorado State University, Wyoming over New Mexico, Oregon State over Stanford, Utah over Air Force, Washington State over Idaho, UCLA over College of Pacific.

Teacher Pay Hiked

DAYTON (AP)—The Dayton Board of Education Tuesday night approved salary increases ranging from $50 to $330 a year for public school teachers, effective Monday. Present scales range from $3,500 to $6,300 a year.

Three Area Teams To Play

Jeff Opens Cage Season At Bowersville Friday

All the basketball fans in the area will have at least one eye on the Jeffersonville team Friday night when they play their first hoop game of the season against Bowersville in Greene County.

The Jeff contest will be only one of three games on a busy Friday night card. But both other area teams in action Friday have opened their seasons before—and that leaves Jeff to scoop the big notice.

Which is not to say the other games won't provide plenty of basketball—they will.

Good Hope's team, with a 1-1 record, goes to Salem in Ross County to tackle a Buckskin's team. And New Holland, eyeing a top spot in the Pickaway County League goes away from home to grapple with an indifferent-looking Atlanta club.

• • •

BUT WHAT happens to Jeff will probably concern most fans, as it will be searched up and down for some early indications of County League prospects.

Hildreth says he thinks his team has "fair height, good shooting and reasonable depth." But he adds, quickly, that the schedule "will require a lot of luck," besides.

Last year's Tiger squad won 15 out of 24 games, but it bowed to Bloomingburg in a chill-packed county tourney. Three boys from that squad are returning, and they are being buttressed by some impressive rookies.

Jim Smith, who averaged 14 points per game last year, leads the parade of veterans. Manford Sizemore, who boasted a 13-point average, is also on the list—as is Alva Hanners, who had an 8 point average.

Larry Burson and Dave Groves are reserve squad members who saw much varsity action last year. They'll be seeing more this season, along with such other ex-reserves as Ronnie Jordan, Charles Jordan, Ronnie Wilt, Jim Cook and Dale Evans.

Joel McDonald, a senior, is out for basketball for the first time and is also a varsity possibility.

Boys who will be used primarily on reserves this year are Earl Burns, Jim Bush, Gary Caplinger, John Davis, Ed Juillerat, John Ritenour, Glen Smith, Don Baird and Larry Bobbitt.

Tough Game Faces Lions Here Friday

The Lions of WHS were warned after practice again Tuesday evening that they can expect a "tough football game" when the Hurricane blows in here from Wilmington Friday night for their combined Homecoming and Band Night game.

With scouting reports showing a stout Hurricane scoring punch, Tuesday evening's practice was devoted largely to the defense the Lions will use to try to stop it.

On their way to the dressing room after that, they stopped at the stadium field to work on their offense under the lights when it got too dark to finish up the workout on the practice field west of the stadium.

Coach Fred Domenico pointed out again that this game will determine whether the Lions wind up the season in second or third place in the SCO League. Greenfield's Tigers have a lock on the championship.

The Lions and the Hurricane have surprisingly similar records as they approach the end of the season in a deadlock for second place in the loop with two wins and one loss each against SCO opponents.

Coach Domenico said there probably will be few changes in the starting lineup of the Lions but he added that, as in past games, there will be many substitutions.

Basketball Clinic Booked at Marion

MARION (AP)—Basketball coaches from all over Ohio have been invited to attend a star-studded clinic scheduled Saturday at Marion High School.

Fordy Anderson, coach of Michigan State University's 1956-57 Big Ten co-champions, will talk Saturday afternoon and Vern Hoffman and his Mansfield High School team will be on the program at 4:30 p.m.

Paul Walker and his state champion Middletown High School basketball team, including top star Jerry Lucas, are on the evening program which will wind up with a 20-minute scrimmage between Marion and Middletown teams.

Frank Lane

Lane Rolls Up Sleeves for Cleveland Job

CLEVELAND (AP)—An explosive 61 - year-old baseball executive with a reputation for shrewd trading is faced today with making pennant contenders of the Cleveland Indians and fill spacious Municipal Stadium with fans who will pay to see them play.

"I'm going to do everything and anything I can to help."

Ten days after he took over as Chicago White Sox' general manager in 1948 he got Billy Pierce and $10,000 from the Detroit Tigers for catcher Aaron Robinson. Pierce has become one of the great lefthanders in baseball, while Robinson faded.

Lane said he wanted to get acquainted with the team and talk things over with Bobby Bragan, Tribe field manager, before commenting on any possible trades.

He did mention, however, that "from a distance" the Indians looked as if they needed help around second base. He said he talked with John McHale, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, by telephone in St. Louis Tuesday. Shortstop Harvey Kuenn, who spent part of last season at third base for Detroit, was discussed.

Dwindling attendance, which more than anything led to the ouster of Greenberg, was because the "baseball spirit was lying dormant in Cleveland," Lane said.

"That big Cleveland stadium appeals to me. So does the demonstrated enthusiasm of Cleveland people for baseball. They've showed it before and if I do my job properly they'll show it again."

Oklahoma Heading For Rushing Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma, the dominant offensive team in major college football uring the last two seasons, finally is in the running for one of this year's offense titles. And running is the correct word.

The all-winning Sooners ran for 424 yards last Saturday against Missouri as they finally got their offense untracked and hung up a 39-14 victory. As a result, team statistics released today by the NCAA service bureau show Oklahoma third in the rushing list and, for the first time this season, within striking distance of the top.

Robinson Flunking Tour with Marines

CINCINNATI (AP)—An ailing right shoulder and arm, which have threatened to end his baseball career a time or two, apparently will bring an early end to the Marine service of Cincinnati Redleg outfielder Frank Robinson.

Capt. B. J. Mulligan, public information officer at the Parris Island (S. C.) Marine base, said Tuesday night that Robinson may be due for discharge from active duty in the very near future.

"He has been found not medically fit for active duty in the Marine Corps," Mulligan said, adding that Robinson's shoulder failed to hold up under the requirements of military training.

Can Irish '11' Fashion Upset?

Notre Dame To Face Oklahoma Saturday

CHICAGO (AP) — Once upon a time one football team or another was out to upset Notre Dame with hopes of ending an Irish winning streak.

The Sooners of Oklahoma have put together 47 consecutive victories. Coach Bud Wilkenson's boys haven't lost since 1953 when Notre Dame fashioned a 28-21 victory.

The oddsmakers don't think so. They've made the Sooners three touchdown favorites. Even those who a couple of weeks ago were saying Oklahoma "can be had" have changed their minds after a crushing 39-14 victory over Missouri last Saturday.

Yet Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan harbors some hopes of an upset. For the second straight week, Brennan insisted his team wasn't as bad as the score indicated.

Terry said it after a 20-6 loss to Navy and again after Saturday's 34-6 loss to Michigan State.

Brennan told the Chicago Football Writers Tuesday "we played much better against Michigan State than the score indicated. The team knows it can do a good and better job and I'm not expecting any letdown."

The belief that the Irish were not as bad as the score indicated against Michigan State was upheld by Spartan Coach Duffy Daugherty.

"Notre Dame is a much better team than last year," said Daugherty, "but our kids have a habit of reaching their peak against Notre Dame. The team was so fired up that we still held a 7-0 lead after all those first half fumbles."

Bellville Game Now Cancelled

This game will complete a 10-game schedule with five wins and four losses.

Disrupted by postponements caused by illness, this is the largest schedule the Lions have played for several years—and one postponed game, which would have made 11 this season, has definitely been cancelled, Athletic Director Fred Domenico said Wednesday morning.

The game with Bellville, which was to have been played Oct. 24, was called off because of illness at Bellville. It was tentatively set for the playoff next Friday, but by mutual agreement it has now been cancelled.

WHS Alumni Football Game Set for Nov. 28

Preliminary arrangements for a game between two teams of WHS alumni at Gardner Park on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day have been completed and now the details are being worked out.

He said 23 former Lions already have signified a desire to have another go at the sport in this game and that "several others" have expressed interest.

How many will eventually be ready to don the blue and white of WHS again Thanksgiving Day is still conjectural, but Domenico expressed the hope there will be "at least 30."

He said that any of the former Lions who want to play in this game can get in touch with him.

The game was arranged for two primary purposes: (1) to give the old grads another chance to play and (2) to bolster the WHS athletic fund, which was dented by postponements and substitute teams this season.

Celtics Push Win Streaks Up to 10

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston Celtics pushed their winning streak to 10 games Tuesday night with a 107-104 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers in a National Basketball Assn. doubleheader.

The Celts moved two-thirds of the way towards their goal of matching the record of 15 straight games at the start of a season.

There Is a Law -- Now

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Middletown law officers wanting to charge an inmate with breaking out of jail ran into a problem— there was no law against breaking out of the city jail.

They finally charged the escapee with destruction of city property— he broke a window in his escape— and city fathers promptly adopted an ordinance plugging the embarassing legal loophole.

Bloomingburg Wins From Bowersville

The Bloomingburg Bulldogs were ahead by only one point at the half, 17 to 16, but when the final whistle sounded they led by 64 - 49, to rack up their third win in four games played this season.

The teams were well matched. Both began with zone defenses and a fast break offense. The Bulldog's foul shooting didn't hurt their chances; they sank 20 of 28 foul shots, while Bowersville hit less than half of their 20 shots.

Jim and Don Hidy scored well for the Bulldogs. Between them they totaled 35 of the 64 points. Jim led with 21 and Don accounted for 14. Bowersville also had a 21-point scorer in Jess Brown.

Bloomingburg Coach Everett Rudolph said his boys rebounded well throughout the entire game and he was pleased with the play of sophomore forward Mike Evans who scored seven points in the second half.

The reserve team of Bloomingburg also won its contest with the Bowersville reserves by a score of 35 to 19. Nine Bloomingburg reserves accounted for the scoring.

Bing Devine Moves Up as Cardinal Pilot

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Youthful Vaughan (Bing) Devine moves in as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and becomes possibly the only general manager in baseball who works on a month-to-month basis.

Devine is only 40 but he's been a Cardinal front office man for 18 years. His most recent job has been executive assistant to general manager Frank Lane.

August A. Busch, president and owner of the Cardinals, took the advice. He announced Devine's appointment three hours after Lane bowed out.

"I won't believe all this until I'm sure I'm awake," said Devine. "I'm afraid I'm dreaming."

The new general manager's salary was said to be $30,000 a year.

Busch took the occasion to announce a new policy: from now on only the field manager will work under a one-year contract and the other members of the managerial team will be on a month-to-month basis.

Devine told reporters that will make no difference to him — it's the same way he's been working since he first joined the Cardinals as a publicity man in 1938.

Auburn Center Gets Top Lineman Nod

NEW YORK (AP)—For making the key play against Mississippi State that kept Auburn in the unbeaten and untied class, sophomore center Jackie Burkett was named the Lineman of the Week to ay.

Last Saturday, State and Auburn were tied 7-7 in the last quarter. State had the ball deep in its own territory and Bill Schoenrock dropped back to punt from his end zone.

Burkett, a 6-4, 215 - pounder broke through to make it impossible for Schoenrock to get off the kick. He was nailed for a safety. That put Auburn ahead 9-7 and provided the winning points.

AP Guesspert Picks Buckeyes To Trip Iowa

Texas A&M, Oklahoma Also Given Nod To Continue Winning

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

So, off we go:

Texas A&M over Rice: Bear Bryant's Aggies are No. 1 in the nation. Rice is only second best in the Southwest Conference.

Oklahoma over Notre Dame: In belief that the Sooners have recovered from their midseason siesta. You can see for yourself on your TV screen.

Ohio State over Iowa: In the past 10 years the home team always has won in this crucial series. The Buckeyes do the entertaining this time and hope to clinch the Rose Bowl bid.

Michigan State over Minnesota: This could be closer than it looks if the Spartans spend too much time remembering their Notre Dame victory and if Bobby Cox is back to normal.

Army over Tulane: Bob Anderson to do some more galloping. The game has been switched to West Point.

Duke over Clemson: Clemson has Harvey White but Duke has too much of everything else.

Oregon over Southern California: By about a touchdown.

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

SOUTH: Georgia Tech over Alabama; Navy over George Washington, Florida over Vanderbilt, Furman over Chattanooga, Kentucky over Xavier, North Carolina State over Virginia Tech, Virginia over South Carolina, West Virginia over Wake Forest, William & Mary over Rutgers, Mississippi Southern over Florida State, Louisiana State over Mississippi State, VMI over The Citadel.

MIDWEST: Detroit over Quantico Marines, Iowa State over South Dakota, Oklahoma State over Kansas, Missouri over Kansas State, Colorado over Nebraska, Purdue over Northwestern, Cincinnati over Tulsa, Houston over Wichita, West Texas State over Drake, Wisconsin over Illinois, Michigan over Indiana.

FAR WEST: California over Washington, Denver over Utah State, Montana over Colorado State University, Wyoming over New Mexico, Oregon State over Stanford, Utah over Air Force, Washington State over Idaho, UCLA over College of Pacific.

Last week's figures: 35 right, 14 wrong . . . 714 average.

Teacher Pay Hiked

DAYTON (AP)—The Dayton Board of Education Tuesday night approved salary increases ranging from $50 to $330 a year for public school teachers, effective Monday. Present scales range from $3,500 to $6,300 a year.

Three Area Teams To Play

Jeff Opens Cage Season At Bowersville Friday

All the basketball fans in the area will have at least one eye on the Jeffersonville team Friday night when they play their first hoop game of the season against Bowersville in Greene County.

The Jeff contest will be only one of three games on a busy Friday night card. But both other area teams in action Friday have opened their seasons before—and that leaves Jeff to scoop the big notice.

Which is not to say the other games won't provide plenty of basketball—they will.

Good Hope's team, with a 1-1 record, goes to Salem in Ross County to tackle a Buckskin's team. And New Holland, eyeing a top spot in the Pickaway County League goes away from home to grapple with an indifferent-looking Atlanta club.

• • •

BUT WHAT happens to Jeff will probably concern most fans, as it will be searched up and down for some early indications of County League prospects.

And Coach Robert Hildreth of the Tigers isn't making any predictions, except to say that "this year should be exciting."

Hildreth says he thinks his team has "fair height, good shooting and reasonable depth." But he adds, quickly, that the schedule "will require a lot of luck," besides.

Last year's Tiger squad won 15 out of 24 games, but it bowed to Bloomingburg in a chill-packed county tourney. Three boys from that squad are returning, and they are being buttressed by some impressive rookies.

Jim Smith, who averaged 14 points per game last year, leads the parade of veterans. Manford Sizemore, who boasted a 13-point average, is also on the list—as is Alva Hanners, who had an 8 point average.

Larry Burson and Dave Groves are reserve squad members who saw much varsity action last year. They'll be seeing more this season, along with such other ex-reserves as Ronnie Jordan, Charles Jordan, Ronnie Wilt, Jim Cook and Dale Evans.

Joel McDonald, a senior, is out for basketball for the first time and is also a varsity possibility.

Boys who will be used primarily on reserves this year are Earl Burns, Jim Bush, Gary Caplinger, John Davis, Ed Juillerat, John Ritenour, Glen Smith, Don Baird and Larry Bobbitt.

First "home" game for the Jeffersonville team will be played on the Bloomingburg floor Nov. 19 against Clarksville.

Tough Game Faces Lions Here Friday

The Lions of WHS were warned after practice again Tuesday evening that they can expect a "tough football game" when the Hurricane blows in here from Wilmington Friday night for their combined Homecoming and Band Night game.

With scouting reports showing a stout Hurricane scoring punch, Tuesday evening's practice was devoted largely to the defense the Lions will use to try to stop it.

On their way to the dressing room after that, they stopped at the stadium field to work on their offense under the lights when it got too dark to finish up the workout on the practice field west of the stadium.

Coach Fred Domenico pointed out again that this game will determine whether the Lions wind up the season in second or third place in the SCO League. Greenfield's Tigers have a lock on the championship.

The Lions and the Hurricane have surprisingly similar records as they approach the end of the season in a deadlock for second place in the loop with two wins and one loss each against SCO opponents.

Coach Domenico said there probably will be few changes in the starting lineup of the Lions but he added that, as in past games, there will be many substitutions.

Basketball Clinic Booked at Marion

MARION (AP)—Basketball coaches from all over Ohio have been invited to attend a star-studded clinic scheduled Saturday at Marion High School.

Fordy Anderson, coach of Michigan State University's 1956-57 Big Ten co-champions, will talk Saturday afternoon and Vern Hoffman and his Mansfield High School team will be on the program at 4:30 p.m.

Paul Walker and his state champion Middletown High School basketball team, including top star Jerry Lucas, are on the evening program which will wind up with a 20-minute scrimmage between Marion and Middletown teams.

Frank Lane

Lane Rolls Up Sleeves for Cleveland Job

CLEVELAND (AP)—An explosive 61 - year-old baseball executive with a reputation for shrewd trading is faced today with making pennant contenders of the Cleveland Indians and fill spacious Municipal Stadium with fans who will pay to see them play.

"Our first job," Lane said after he stepped off the plane," is to find out what the team needs."

"I'm going to do everything and anything I can to help."

Ten days after he took over as Chicago White Sox' general manager in 1948 he got Billy Pierce and $10,000 from the Detroit Tigers for catcher Aaron Robinson. Pierce has become one of the great lefthanders in baseball, while Robinson faded.

Lane said he wanted to get acquainted with the team and talk things over with Bobby Bragan, Tribe field manager, before commenting on any possible trades.

He did mention, however, that "from a distance" the Indians looked as if they needed help around second base. He said he talked with John McHale, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, by telephone in St. Louis Tuesday. Shortstop Harvey Kuenn, who spent part of last season at third base for Detroit, was discussed.

Dwindling attendance, which more than anything led to the ouster of Greenberg, was because the "baseball spirit was lying dormant in Cleveland," Lane said.

"That big Cleveland stadium appeals to me. So does the demonstrated enthusiasm of Cleveland people for baseball. They've showed it before and if I do my job properly they'll show it again."

Oklahoma Heading For Rushing Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma, the dominant offensive team in major college football uring the last two seasons, finally is in the running for one of this year's offense titles. And running is the correct word.

The all-winning Sooners ran for 424 yards last Saturday against Missouri as they finally got their offense untracked and hung up a 39-14 victory. As a result, team statistics released today by the NCAA service bureau show Oklahoma third in the rushing list and, for the first time this season, within striking distance of the top.

Robinson Flunking Tour with Marines

CINCINNATI (AP)—An ailing right shoulder and arm, which have threatened to end his baseball career a time or two, apparently will bring an early end to the Marine service of Cincinnati Redleg outfielder Frank Robinson.

Capt. B. J. Mulligan, public information officer at the Parris Island (S. C.) Marine base, said Tuesday night that Robinson may be due for discharge from active duty in the very near future.

"He has been found not medically fit for active duty in the Marine Corps," Mulligan said, adding that Robinson's shoulder failed to hold up under the requirements of military training.

Can Irish '11' Fashion Upset?

Notre Dame To Face Oklahoma Saturday

CHICAGO (AP) — Once upon a time one football team or another was out to upset Notre Dame with hopes of ending an Irish winning streak.

Nowadays, it's the other way around. And Saturday afternoon Notre Dame goes up against college football's longest winning record.

The Sooners of Oklahoma have put together 47 consecutive victories. Coach Bud Wilkenson's boys haven't lost since 1953 when Notre Dame fashioned a 28-21 victory.

But in 1953 Notre Dame finished as the No. 2 team in the nation. This year, the twice-beaten Irish aren't even ranked.

Can Notre Dame pull off the upset of the season in Saturday's nationally televised game?

The oddsmakers don't think so. They've made the Sooners three touchdown favorites. Even those who a couple of weeks ago were saying Oklahoma "can be had" have changed their minds after a crushing 39-14 victory over Missouri last Saturday.

Yet Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan harbors some hopes of an upset. For the second straight week, Brennan insisted his team wasn't as bad as the score indicated.

Terry said it after a 20-6 loss to Navy and again after Saturday's 34-6 loss to Michigan State.

Brennan told the Chicago Football Writers Tuesday "we played much better against Michigan State than the score indicated. The team knows it can do a good and better job and I'm not expecting any letdown."

The belief that the Irish were not as bad as the score indicated against Michigan State was upheld by Spartan Coach Duffy Daugherty.

"Notre Dame is a much better team than last year," said Daugherty, "but our kids have a habit of reaching their peak against Notre Dame. The team was so fired up that we still held a 7-0 lead after all those first half fumbles."

Bellville Game Now Cancelled

This game will complete a 10-game schedule with five wins and four losses.

Disrupted by postponements caused by illness, this is the largest schedule the Lions have played for several years—and one postponed game, which would have made 11 this season, has definitely been cancelled, Athletic Director Fred Domenico said Wednesday morning.

The game with Bellville, which was to have been played Oct. 24, was called off because of illness at Bellville. It was tentatively set for the playoff next Friday, but by mutual agreement it has now been cancelled.

Fifteen hundred new primary schools are now under construction in Turkey.

WHS Alumni Football Game Set for Nov. 28

Football fans hereabouts are going to get a chance to see some of the former stars of the WHS Lion teams of the past perform once more.

Preliminary arrangements for a game between two teams of WHS alumni at Gardner Park on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day have been completed and now the details are being worked out.

He said 23 former Lions already have signified a desire to have another go at the sport in this game and that "several others" have expressed interest.

How many will eventually be ready to don the blue and white of WHS again Thanksgiving Day is still conjectural, but Domenico expressed the hope there will be "at least 30."

He said that any of the former Lions who want to play in this game can get in touch with him.

The game was arranged for two primary purposes: (1) to give the old grads another chance to play and (2) to bolster the WHS athletic fund, which was dented by postponements and substitute teams this season.

Celtics Push Win Streaks Up to 10

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston Celtics pushed their winning streak to 10 games Tuesday night with a 107-104 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers in a National Basketball Assn. doubleheader.

The Celts moved two-thirds of the way towards their goal of matching the record of 15 straight games at the start of a season.

There Is a Law -- Now

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Middletown law officers wanting to charge an inmate with breaking out of jail ran into a problem— there was no law against breaking out of the city jail.

They finally charged the escapee with destruction of city property— he broke a window in his escape— and city fathers promptly adopted an ordinance plugging the embarassing legal loophole.

Bloomingburg Wins From Bowersville

The Bloomingburg Bulldogs were ahead by only one point at the half, 17 to 16, but when the final whistle sounded they led by 64 - 49, to rack up their third win in four games played this season.

The teams were well matched. Both began with zone defenses and a fast break offense. The Bulldog's foul shooting didn't hurt their chances; they sank 20 of 28 foul shots, while Bowersville hit less than half of their 20 shots.

Jim and Don Hidy scored well for the Bulldogs. Between them they totaled 35 of the 64 points. Jim led with 21 and Don accounted for 14. Bowersville also had a 21-point scorer in Jess Brown.

Bloomingburg Coach Everett Rudolph said his boys rebounded well throughout the entire game and he was pleased with the play of sophomore forward Mike Evans who scored seven points in the second half.

The reserve team of Bloomingburg also won its contest with the Bowersville reserves by a score of 35 to 19. Nine Bloomingburg reserves accounted for the scoring.

Bing Devine Moves Up as Cardinal Pilot

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Youthful Vaughan (Bing) Devine moves in as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and becomes possibly the only general manager in baseball who works on a month-to-month basis.

Devine is only 40 but he's been a Cardinal front office man for 18 years. His most recent job has been executive assistant to general manager Frank Lane.

August A. Busch, president and owner of the Cardinals, took the advice. He announced Devine's appointment three hours after Lane bowed out.

"I won't believe all this until I'm sure I'm awake," said Devine. "I'm afraid I'm dreaming."

The new general manager's salary was said to be $30,000 a year.

Busch took the occasion to announce a new policy: from now on only the field manager will work under a one-year contract and the other members of the managerial team will be on a month-to-month basis.

Devine told reporters that will make no difference to him — it's the same way he's been working since he first joined the Cardinals as a publicity man in 1938.

Auburn Center Gets Top Lineman Nod

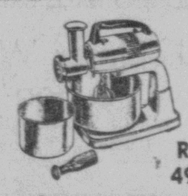

NEW YORK (AP)—For making the key play against Mississippi State that kept Auburn in the unbeaten and untied class, sophomore center Jackie Burkett was named the Lineman of the Week to ay.

Last Saturday, State and Auburn were tied 7-7 in the last quarter. State had the ball deep in its own territory and Bill Schoenrock dropped back to punt from his end zone.

Burkett, a 6-4, 215 - pounder broke through to make it impossible for Schoenrock to get off the kick. He was nailed for a safety. That put Auburn ahead 9-7 and provided the winning points.

Famous Columbus Detective Dies at 77

COLUMBUS (AP)—Harry B. Carson, 77, for a quarter-century part of the detective team of "Creedon and Carson," died Tuesday night. He and James J. Creedon, as Columbus Police Department detectives, were known through the Midwest for their ability to spot confidence men and pickpockets.

Wife-Slayer Handed Life Term in Prison

Graham admitted that he fired five bullets into his wife's body. A three-judge court tried the man and recommended mercy, saving him from the electric chair.

Columbus Jury Hearing Death Trial Testimony

COLUMBUS (AP) — A criminal court jury began hearing testimony Tuesday in the second degree murder trial of Alonzo Wade, 36. He is accused of the July 6 knife slaying of James H. Fielder, 35, also of Columbus, after an argument.

COLUMBUS (AP)—Harry B. Carson, 77, for a quarter-century part of the detective team of "Creedon and Carson," died Tuesday night. He and James J. Creedon, as Columbus Police Department detectives, were known through the Midwest for their ability to spot confidence men and pickpockets.

Wife-Slayer Handed Life Term in Prison

Graham admitted that he fired five bullets into his wife's body. A three-judge court tried the man and recommended mercy, saving him from the electric chair.

Columbus Jury Hearing Death Trial Testimony

COLUMBUS (AP) — A criminal court jury began hearing testimony Tuesday in the second degree murder trial of Alonzo Wade, 36. He is accused of the July 6 knife slaying of James H. Fielder, 35, also of Columbus, after an argument.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Roseann S. Fleming is Plaintiff, vs. Iris Lee McKinley, et al are Defendants. Court of Common Pleas, Fayette County, Ohio. Case No. 22359.

In pursuance of an order of sale in partition issued from said Court to me directed in the above entitled action, I will expose to sale, at public auction, at the door of the Court House in Washington C. H., Fayette County, Ohio, on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1957, at 2 o'clock P. M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Fayette, State of Ohio and Township of Jasper and bounded and described as follows:

TRACT ONE: Beginning at a stone in the center of the county road, corner to the John Thompson estate and in the line of the Christina Sparks estate; thence S. 35 deg. 25' E. 21.50 chains to a stone in the line of said Thompson estate and corner to Lot No. 3 of the sub-division of these lands; thence N. 62 deg. E. 14.24 chains to a stone corner to said Lot No. 3; thence S. 35 deg. 25' E. 3.37 chains to a stone corner to Lot No. 3; thence N. 62 deg. E. 15.24 chains to a point in the center of the Marchant Pike corner to said Lot No. 3 and in the line of Sarah Davids; thence with the center of said pike N. 40 deg. 40' W. 25-100 chains to a point in said pike corner to Lot No. 2 of this subdivision; thence S. 62 deg. W. 14.84 chains to a stone corner to said Lot No. 2; thence N. 35 deg. 25' W. (passing a stone in the south line of the county road) 24.62 chains to a point in the center of said county road and corner to said Lot No. 2; thence S. 62 deg. W. 14.64 chains to the beginning, containing 31.80 acres and being part of C. Biddle's Survey No. 868.

EXCEPTING THEREFROM THE FOLLOWING DESCRIBED PREMISES: Beginning at a stone corner to Lot No. 3 in the subdivision of lands of John W. Luttrell, as shown in Will Record No. 7, page 588 et seq. and further reference to the transfer of said lots, reference is made to Recorder's Record, Deed Book No. 48, page 229, both references to Fayette County, Ohio; thence N. 62 deg. E. 15.24 chains to a point in the center of the Marchant Pike, corner to Lot No. 3 and in the line of Sarah Davids; thence with the center of said pike N. 40 deg. 40' W. 25-100 chains to a point in said pike corner to Lot No. 2 of this subdivision; thence S. 62 deg. W. 14. 84 chains to a stone corner to said Lot No. 2 and an additional 25-100 chain in a straight line to the line of Lot No. 3 ;thence S. 35 deg. 25' E. 25-100 chains to the place of beginning, containing 3 100 of an acre, more or less. The intention is to convey a strip of ground off Lot No. 1 in this subdivision, one rod wide and approximately 70 rods long, which was formerly used as a roadway or right-of-way from Marchant's Pike to the lands conveyed to Mary A. Miller, and another strip of equal width running in a northerly direction about 10 rods, one rod wide, disposing of the grantor's roadway or right-of-way as shown on the subdivision of lots.

TRACT TWO: Beginning at a stone at the intersections of the center lines of the County Road and the Marchant Pike, corner to school lot, J. W. Davis, C. P. and Ettie Luttrell; thence S. 62 deg. W. 12.49 chains to a point in the center of said road, corner to Lot One of this subdivision and in the line of Christina Sparks Estate; thence S. 35 deg. 25' E. (passing a stone at the south edge of the road) 24.62 chains to a stone corner to Lot One; thence N. 62 deg. E. 14.84 chains to a point in the center of said pike, corner to said Lot One and in the line of Sarah Davids; thence N. 40 deg. 40' W. 24.97 chains to the beginning, excepting therefrom the two acre tract at the northeast corner of this tract, containing (exclusive of said two acres conveyed by J. W. Luttrell to C. P. Luttrell and Ettie Luttrell) thirty - one and forth-one-hundredths (31.40) acres, more or less, and being a part of C. Biddle's Survey No. 868, and being the same premises designated as Lot No. 2 of the subdivision of the lands of John W. Luttrell, deceased, which said Lot No. 2 was devised to the said C. P. Luttrell by the last will and testament of John W. Luttrell, deceased, said will and plat and description of said subdivision being recorded in Will Record 7, page 588, of the Probate Court of Fayette County, Ohio, to which reference is hereby made.

TRACT THREE: Beginning at a stone at the cross roads corner to school lot sub-Dist. 6 and David's land; thence with the road and the line of said David's land S. 41½ deg. E. 17.29 poles to an iron pin; thence S. 51½ deg. W. 16.58 poles to an iron pin; thence N. 41½ deg. W. 21.21 poles to an iron pin in Lambert Road corner to Sparks also corner to Etta Luttrell; thence with the center of road and said Etta Luttrell N. 61 ¾ deg. E. 17.04 poles to the beginning, containing two (2) acres of land, and being part of Biddle's Survey No. 868.

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

F E T F G R Y P W T Z M N R F H D Y M R G

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: AND FOR THE FEW THAT ONLY LEND THEIR EAR, THAT FEW IS ALL THE WORLD— DANIEL.

Home Demonstration Council Sets Christmas-at-Home Plans

Final plans for the "Christmas-at-Home" program were completed by the Home Demonstration Council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

This annual event is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 5, in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium. The report of the planning committee was given by its chairman Miss Louise Ritter. Responsibilities were assigned to each Home Demonstration Club.

Special events of the day will include a fashion revue of the tailored suits and dresses completed by about 25 women taking part in tailoring classes this fall. There also will be exhibits of Christmas ideas brought in by the club members. Christmas decorative arrangements will be exhibited by the garden clubs.

Mrs. Maryon Mark, president, appointed the committee to arrange the achievement day program held in April. Mrs. Floyd Henkleman is chairman and Mrs. Clarence Chrisman and Mrs. Carey Daugherty are the other committee members.

The Council discussed program planning for the fall months of 1958. The topic to be included in the September club program will be outdoor cookery. Later in the fall "Choice and Care of Hard Floor Coverings" will be studied by the group. "The Use and Care of the Many New Small Electrical Appliances for the Kitchen" will be demonstrated to club leaders by a specialist from Ohio State University during the Home Demonstration program next fall.

Twelve clubs were represented by 20 women at the meeting Tuesday. The next Council meeting is set for Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1958.

Navy Assigns New Recruiter To Local Area

The Navy Recruiting Office here announced Wednesday the assignment of a new Navy recruiter, Chief Machinist's Mate Erwin (Pat) Waller. The announcement was

CHIEF ERWIN WALLER

The Wallers are presently living on Route 70 (Greenfield Rd.)

Chief Lee, who for the past two years has been the Navy recruiter in this area, will leave at the end of February. He will report to the East Coast for a short tour of sea duty before retiring from the Navy.

* * *

FOR THE PAST four weeks Waller has been attending school at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. He will work with Lee until the latter's departure.

A Navy veteran of 15 years Waller has seen service in foreign countries. Included in his ribbons are: Good Conduct with two stars, American Defense, American Theatre, Asiatic Pacific Theatre with seven stars, WWII Victory medal, Japanese Occupational medal, National Defense, United Nations, Korean medal, and the Korean Presential Citation.

Waller's last duty station was aboard the Radar Picket Destroyer USS Perkins, serving with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Medical Auxiliary Speeds 'High Fever Follies' Plans

Plans are well under way for the Dec. 11 and 12 production "High Fever Follies," being sponsored by the Fayette County Medical Auxiliary to benefit Memorial Hospital.

The musical will be held in the high school auditorium and will feature local talent under the direction of the Jerome H. Cargill company of New York.

All men's civic organizations have been requested to sponsor a "Sultan" for the "Maharajah" contest. Coin containers, bearing pictures of the individual club's candidates will be placed in downtown stores with the contributions going to the hospital. Votes for candidates will be determined from the amount of contributions placed in the containers.

The winning Sultan will be announced from the high school auditorium stage Dec. 11. He will be accompanied by dancing girls.

A talent party will be held by the Medical Auxiliary at 8 p. m. Nov. 25, in the American Legion Home. Anyone wishing to take part in the talent show, and thus qualify for participitation in the musical, is urged to contact some member of the talent committee.

* * *

MRS. JAMES ROSE, president of the Medical Auxiliary, has announced a number of committees to plan the musical.

Mrs. N. M. Reiff was named chairman of the talent committee. Others on the committee are Mrs. Thomas Gormley, Hal Summers, Grover Baber and Miss Anne Stinson.

Mrs. William Patterson was named chairman of the patron ticket committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Anderson. Mrs. Philip Binzel was named chairman of the tickets sales committee, and will be assisted by Mrs. LaVerne Haugen and Richard Whiteside.

Mrs. Robert Woodmansee and Mrs. Hugh Payton were named co-chairmen of the program committee and will be assisted by Miss Helen Hutson.

Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Ethel Caldwell. Mrs. Fred Domenico will be in charge of the Marahajah competition and all posters for the affair will be provided by the Camera Club.

* * *

RESPONSIBLE for stage management and properties will be Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schlue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheppherd, Don Kiser and Miss Virginia Crawford.

Mrs. Robert Green was named chairman of the make-up committee. She will be assisted by the members of the Washington C. H. Hairdresser's Guild.

Concessions will be in charge of Mrs. Joe F. Loudner, assisted by Mrs. Robert Klever.

Home Demonstration Council Sets Christmas-at-Home Plans

Final plans for the "Christmas-at-Home" program were completed by the Home Demonstration Council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

This annual event is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 5, in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium. The report of the planning committee was given by its chairman Miss Louise Ritter. Responsibilities were assigned to each Home Demonstration Club.

Special events of the day will include a fashion revue of the tailored suits and dresses completed by about 25 women taking part in tailoring classes this fall. There also will be exhibits of Christmas ideas brought in by the club members. Christmas decorative arrangements will be exhibited by the garden clubs.

Mrs. Maryon Mark, president, appointed the committee to arrange the achievement day program held in April. Mrs. Floyd Henkleman is chairman and Mrs. Clarence Chrisman and Mrs. Carey Daugherty are the other committee members.

The Council discussed program planning for the fall months of 1958. The topic to be included in the September club program will be outdoor cookery. Later in the fall "Choice and Care of Hard Floor Coverings" will be studied by the group. "The Use and Care of the Many New Small Electrical Appliances for the Kitchen" will be demonstrated to club leaders by a specialist from Ohio State University during the Home Demonstration program next fall.

Twelve clubs were represented by 20 women at the meeting Tuesday. The next Council meeting is set for Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1958.

Navy Assigns New Recruiter To Local Area

The Navy Recruiting Office here announced Wednesday the assignment of a new Navy recruiter, Chief Machinist's Mate Erwin (Pat) Waller. The announcement was made by Chief Philip Lee, the present Navy recruiter.

CHIEF ERWIN WALLER

The Wallers are presently living on Route 70 (Greenfield Rd.)

Chief Lee, who for the past two years has been the Navy recruiter in this area, will leave at the end of February. He will report to the East Coast for a short tour of sea duty before retiring from the Navy.

* * *

FOR THE PAST four weeks Waller has been attending school at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. He will work with Lee until the latter's departure.

A Navy veteran of 15 years Waller has seen service in foreign countries. Included in his ribbons are: Good Conduct with two stars, American Defense, American Theatre, Asiatic Pacific Theatre with seven stars, WWII Victory medal, Japanese Occupational medal, National Defense, United Nations, Korean medal, and the Korean Presential Citation.

Waller's last duty station was aboard the Radar Picket Destroyer USS Perkins, serving with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Medical Auxiliary Speeds 'High Fever Follies' Plans

Plans are well under way for the Dec. 11 and 12 production "High Fever Follies," being sponsored by the Fayette County Medical Auxiliary to benefit Memorial Hospital.

The musical will be held in he high school auditorium and will feature local talent under the direction of the Jerome H. Cargill company of New York.

All men's civic organizations have been requested to sponsor a "Sultan" for the "Maharajah" contest. Coin containers, bearing pictures of the individual club's candidates will be placed in downtown stores with the contributions going to the hospital. Votes for candidates will be determined from the amount of contributions placed in the containers.

The winning Sultan will be announced from the high school auditorium stage Dec. 11. He will be accompanied by dancing girls.

A talent party will be held by the Medical Auxiliary at 8 p. m Nov. 25, in the American Legion Home. Anyone wishing to take part in the talent show, and thus qualify for participitation in the musical, is urged to contact some member of the talent committee.

* * *

MRS. JAMES ROSE, president of the Medical Auxiliary, has announced a number of committees to plan the musical.

Mrs. N. M. Reiff was named chairman of the talent committee. Others on the committee are Mrs. Thomas Gormley, Hal Summers, Grover Baber and Miss Anne Stinson.

Mrs. William Patterson was named chairman of the patron ticket committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Anderson. Mrs. Philip Binzel was named chairman of the tickets sales committee, and will be assisted by Mrs. LaVerne Haugen and Richard Whiteside.

Mrs. Robert Woodmansee and Mrs. Hugh Payton were named co-chairmen of the program committee and will be assisted by Miss Helen Hutson.

Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Ethel Caldwell. Mrs. Fred Domenico will be in charge of the Marahajah competition and all posters for the affair will be provided by the Camera Club.

* * *

RESPONSIBLE for stage management and properties will be Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schlue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheppherd, Don Kiser and Miss Virginia Crawford.

Mrs. Robert Green was named chairman of the make-up committee. She will be assisted by the members of the Washington C. H. Hairdresser's Guild.

Concessions will be in charge of Mrs. Joe F. Loudner, assisted by Mrs. Robert Klever.
